Three local high school students win scholarships

Three local high school students have won scholarships from the Urban League Guild's Ebony Fashion Fair scholarship competition:

• Tonya L. Ford, a 17-year-old senior at Carver High School, won first place in the Ebony Fashion Fair scholarship competition and will receive a $1,000 scholarship. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Albert Ford. She plans to major in political science and minor in communications at Howard University. She also hopes to attend Wake Forest University Law School for postgraduate studies.

• CleRenda Harris, a 16-year-old junior at Parkland High School, won second place and will receive a $500 scholarship. She is the daughter of Aloa and Cleveland Harris. She would like to become a veterinarian or a journalist.

• Amelia C. Smalls, a 15-year-old sophomore at Mt. Tabor High School, won third place and will receive a $300 scholarship. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sampson H. Smalls. She would like to pursue a law career.

The scholarship winners were announced at the intermission of the Ebony Fashion Fair, held at the Benton Convention Center November 1. The scholarship competition is sponsored annually by the Winston-Salem Urban League Guild.

Upward Bound participants receive honors

Debra Height, sophomore — Mt. Tabor High School was recently selected for the 191-92 WS/FC High School All-County Honors Orchestra. Debra is a second year participant in the Winston-Salem State University Upward Bound Program. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Height.

Benita Parks, junior — Mt. Tabor High School was recently inducted into the National Honor Society on Friday, November 15. The ceremony was held at Mt.

Tabor High School. Benita is a third year participant in the Winston-Salem State University Upward Bound Program. She is the daughter of Billy and Bertha Parks.

Danita Barber, senior — Glenn High School exceeded 1000 on the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT). Ryan Cutler, senior — Reynolds High School exceeded 1100 on the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT). Both students are fourth year participants in the Winston-Salem State University Upward Bound Program.

Salvation Army receives grant of $100,000 from local foundation

The Salvation Army has received a $100,000 grant from Kate B. Reynolds Poor and Needy Trust to help with the construction of a new shelter and administrative office on North Trade Street.

Construction on the new building, which will include upgraded facilities for homeless families as well as women and children, will begin later this month and will be completed in mid-1992.

"There is a growing number of families and women with children who find themselves without shelter," said Major Edwin Sutton, area commander for the Army. "Our new facility will provide 24-hour shelter and an improved ability to provide additional services ranging from a playground for the children to job training."

The Kate B. Reynolds Poor and Needy Trust is a private foundation created in 1946 through provisions in the will of Mrs. William N. Reynolds for the purpose of improving the welfare of Forsyth County's disadvantaged people. Approximately $3 million is awarded annually to nonprofit organizations for programs which provide the economically disadvantaged with basic necessities as well as for services which improve the quality of life for individuals who require such services because of circumstances beyond their control.

WSSU expresses thanks to following

Lorraine Sims, a university residence administrator, Virginia Hairston, a supervisor and students wish to express their sincere thanks to the following people that rendered programs in Moore Hall this fall semester: August 27, 1991 — Jennie Barrette, Student Government Association, president; September 4, 1991 — Alderman Larry Womble; October 1, 1991 — The Fire Department Company Four; and October 4, 1991 — Mrs. Althea Jones, Counseling Center at Winston-Salem State University. — These programs were beneficial to all of us and we thank you openly.
