

Boys Club holds Thanksgiving Program

By YVETTE N. FREEMAN
Chronicle Staff Writer

The Winston-Salem Salvation Army Boys Club held its annual Thanksgiving Program this past Thursday, Nov. 21 at the Club on Martin Luther King Jr. Drive.

The program began at 6:30 p.m. and included a potluck dinner for members of each of the Boys Clubs' units throughout the city, and their families.

The Rev. Frederick Littlejohn, pastor of New Jerusalem Baptist Church was the guest speaker. The New Jerusalem Junior Disciples Choir provided the music for the occasion and members of the Alpha Phi Omega Fraternity presented a special skit. This year's theme for the Thanksgiving program was "Family Blessings."

According to Ed Cooper, unit

director at the Boys Club, the program was a complete success, "It was very successful, well attended. Each year we seem to grow," he said. Cooper added that the number of parents in attendance helped to make the program a success.

"Parent participation was very good," he stated. "And in an organization like this, parents' participation means a lot, and it is very hard to get parents participation, and when you do, you really pat yourself on the back because it's not that easy to get it."

At least 200 people were in attendance overall for the program, representing each of the city's three Boys Club units — Martin Luther King Jr. Drive, Happy Hill Gardens, and Cleveland Avenue.

The Boys Club plans to also hold a special Christmas program for the members of the Club and their families. That program is scheduled for Dec. 12 at 6:30 p.m. at the Martin Luther King Jr. Drive unit.

Correction

In last week's issue of the Chronicle, we mistakenly reported that the Rev. G.W. Roland was the guest speaker for Middlefork Christian Church's 11 a.m. service, Sunday, Nov. 24. In fact, the Rev. Roland was the 3 p.m. speaker. The Rev. William Elder, pastor of Middlefork Christian Church was the 11 a.m. speaker. We also reported that Ms. Guyrene Haith was the coordinator of that service. The church's Building Committee, of which Ms. Haith is a member, coordinated the service. Its members include: the Rev. William Elder, pastor; Garland Wallace Sr., chairman/trustee; Diane Caldwell Wallace, co-chairman; Shirley Carter, chairman of the trustee board; Jerry Saunders Sr., trustee/photographer; Biggers Hicks, trustee, and William Boyce, trustee.

American Legion Post #453 gives food to needy

The Lawrence Joel American Legion Post #453 distributed food baskets to senior citizens and needy families in the community. The event took place on November 27 at 6 p.m.

The program was sponsored by the Chaplain's Service Committee. Odell Jackson is the chairman. Other members include Dorothy Britt, John Fowler, Melvin Hairston, and Larry Wilson.

Forsyth Village residents spend day at the Zoo

Some of the residents at Forsyth Village Long-Term Care Center, which is co-owned by Jerry Chapman and Faiger Blackwell, along with their activity coordinator, Vanessa Jeter, experienced a very enlightening and educational day at the Zoo in Asheboro!

The day was filled with laughter, sight-seeing and visiting exhibits which proved to be a very enjoyable afternoon.
