

Peace and goodwill from The Olympic Lodge #795

Happiness comes from within. The Olympic Lodge #795 P.H.A. F.A.M. of Winston-Salem, secured a measure of happiness by their own acts. They found a feeling of contentment by helping our less fortunate fellowmen.

On December 2 at the Masonic Temple on 14th Street, 17 Masonic Brothers and the Worshipful Master, Franklin Johnson, presented to Mr. Danny Reed of Crisis Control Ministries a check for $500. The check will be used to help the less fortunate of our community during this season of peace and goodwill.

Sara Lee awards $10,000 grant to Upward Bound

Addie Hymes, director of Project Upward Bound at Winston-Salem State University expressed excitement and overwhelming appreciation when she received a $10,000 check from the Sara Lee Corporation. Mrs. Hymes stated that the funds would be used for expanding and sustaining supplemental as well as complemental academic, cultural, educational and enrichment activities of the program relative to "family" involvement.

Upward Bound students and their parents are very involved in activities designed to enhance the student's overall preparedness for the college experience and to improve and further bond the student/parent relationship. The director and her staff go far beyond the norm in ensuring parental involvement in the total education of the Upward Bound student.

Sara Lee's generous and much needed $10,000 grant will certainly help fill the widening funding gap of the program.

FC Day School students complete intern requirements

Twelve students participating in Forsyth County Day School's Leadership Effectiveness and Developments program completed a portion of their internship requirements by attending a morning session in District Attorney Tom Keith's courtroom last week.

The students, Ginna Christensen, Kim Cotter, Jason Davis, Bryan Freiburger, Laurie Furr, Tiffany Griggs, Kristen Harris, Jessica Monroe, Blair Phillips, James Sheets, Emily Tierney, and Sandra Trujillo, observed the jury selection process and saw court in session.

The program will continue throughout the 1991-92 school year with internships and mentoring for all students involved.
