

YBA BASKETBALL AT WINSTON LAKE

League play resumes after holidays

By Chronicle Staff

YBA play resumed after the holiday break with a full slate of games last Friday and Saturday at the Winston Lake YMCA. Here's a recap of the action in each age group.

NBA 6-8s

Pistons smack Hornets

David Coplin had the hot hand in leading the Pistons to a one-sided 27-10 victory over the point distribution to key their 24-19 victory over the Tar Heels.

J. Brayboy, L. Hamilton and J. Pender scored six points each to pace the Panthers offense. The Tar Heels got most of their offense courtesy of S. Johnson who tallied 10 points.

CIAA 12-15s

Bison top Golden Bulls

Mario Cloud hit two free throws with time running out to lift the Bison to a 48-47 victory over the Golden Bulls. Cloud hit both ends of the one-and-one with four seconds remaining in the game: On two occasions, the Golden Bulls called time out before Cloud went to the line in an effort to disturb his concentration.

Photo by Chronicle Staff

Wolfpack guard H. Martin checks the sidelines for instructions prior to bringing the ball upcourt.

But even after Cloud's free throws, the Golden Bulls had one final chance to pull out a victory. Tyson Patterson took the final shot, but it rolled off the rim as the final buzzer sounded.

The Bison's Geoffrey

Williams was the game's high scorer with 16 points. Denorris Belton led the Golden Bulls offense with 15 points.

Rams smack Eagles

Ike Howard went on an offensive rampage, scoring 27 points to lead the Rams to a 61-53 victory over the Eagles.

The Eagles' Jonathan Butler responded with 18 points, but it wasn't enough. The Eagles were hampered by the absence of DeWon Houston, Chris Stewart and Dexter Wright, all of whom, fouled out of the game.

Photo by Chronicle Staff

E. Blackwell of the Lakers looks to pass off to an open teammate in last week's game against the Bulls.

Hornets. Coplin zapped the Hornets for 14 points to lead all scorers.

Bulls edge Lakers

The Bulls and Lakers didn't give up much of anything, but the Bulls hung tough at the end to pull out a 13-11 win.

In a game where both team's defenses set the tone, Chris Hicks led the Bulls with seven points. E. Blackwell was the top point producer for the Lakers with five points.

NCAA 9-11s

Blue Devils nip Hoyas

Nick Bryan scored his only basket of the game with four seconds left to play to give the Blue Devils a 37-35 victory over the Hoyas.

Throughout the contest, neither team could sustain an advantage. Henry Mack was the top gun for the Devils with 17 points. Anthony Tomlinson contributed 14 points in a losing effort for the Hoyas.

Wolfpack stop Deacons

The Wolfpack benefitted from balanced scoring and registered a 37-30 win over the Deacons.

Chris Graham and David Mickle shared high scoring honors for the victors with 10 points each. Adrian McCloud was the Deacons leading scorer with eight points.

Panthers prevail

The Panthers got some equal

Photo by Max Dunhill

The Bulls Adonna McDowell gets into the flow of the game.

CIAA Roundball Notes

By Chronicle Staff

Now that the conference part of the season has begun in earnest, Johnson C. Smith and Fayetteville State are sending some serious signals that they have grand designs on capturing the CIAA's Southern Division.

The Golden Bulls ran their season's record to 8-2 after stopping Morehouse College 80-78 to win the finals of the Historically Black Colleges and Universities Tournament (HBCU) last Saturday at Petersburg, Va.

Golden Bulls forward Mark Sherrill turned the HBCU into his own personal showcase as the tournament MVP. The Durham senior scored 70 points in two games for a sterling 35 ppg. Against Morehouse, Sherrill finished with 39 points, which included 15 of 22 shooting from the field; four of four from three-point range; and five of six from the foul line.

Fayetteville State, in the meantime, kept busy by beating Division I foe Western Carolina, 76-75 on the road last Friday. At the start of this week, the Broncos were 11-1 overall and 4-1 in league play.

Against Western Carolina, pivotman Vernon Broughton played a key role, contributing 23 points in the process. The 6-8 junior from Huger, SC, hit 9 of 16 field goals and 5 of 8 free throws to help subdue WCU.

WESTON TRAVEL

RAM OF THE WEEK

Weston Travel is pleased to recognize Michael McNeal as our Ram of the Week for his sparkling defensive effort in the Smoke of the River Tournament. Michael, a 6'3", 185 lb forward out of Swansea, S.C. had sound performances in both tournament games. McNeal slated a total of 13 points, 25 rebounds (15 defensive), 3 steals, 2 assists, and 3 blocked shots. Michael is a senior. Applied Science major.

Weston Travel salutes Michael McNeal for his diligence and commitment both on and off the hardwood court at Winston-Salem State University.

#34 Michael McNeal

Next Home Rams Game:
January 14 versus St. Augustines
Gaines Complex 7:30 p.m.

WESTON TRAVEL (919) 721-9000
122-A Reynolda Village Winston-Salem NC 27106 FAX (919) 721-4877
FOR ALL YOUR TRAVEL NEEDS

Winston-Salem Chronicle

Present the

"Why Your School Is Cool" Contest

Students, here's a chance to show off your school and win a great prize.

In 25 words or less, tell us why your school is "cool."

Entry can be a poem, an essay, or whatever. It must be received at the Winston-Salem Chronicle by Tuesday, Jan. 14, 1992.

The winner will be announced in the Chronicle on Thursday, Jan. 16. The student with the winning entry gets to take his/her WHOLE CLASS to an Ice Capades Performance. The class will also receive a backstage tour.

Tom Scallen's ICE CAPADES
Thursday, Jan. 23 thru Sunday, Jan. 26 • LJM COLISEUM

A Centennial Celebration!!!

Winston-Salem State University

CONTINUING A 100 YEAR COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE

Wednesday, January 15, 1992

Flag-Raising Ceremony

8:30 a.m., Blair Hall

Opening Convocation

Dr. Samuel D. Proctor, Guest Speaker

Educator and Theologian

9:45 a.m., Kenneth R. Williams Auditorium

Everyone Welcome!!!