

Kmart names Bryant Pharmacist of the Year

Kmart Corporation today presented Karen Bryant, pharmacy manager at the Kernersville, N.C. Kmart with the "Pharmacist of the Year" Award.

The national award honors a pharmacist for excellence in customer care, contribution to the pharmacy profession, involvement in community service and Kmart store activity. Bryant received the award from Howard Kramer, Kmart director, recruitment and pharmacy personnel, in a store ceremony at the South Main Street Kmart store.

"This award recognizes our pharmacists' commitment to excellence," said Kramer. "Karen Bryant is a credit to her profession bringing excellent care to her customers and the community."

Bryant was one of the three regional finalists for the national award representing the company's Southern Region. Other Regional Pharmacist Award winners included Susanne Sopko, Hermitage, Penn., East Central Region; and Deborah Bauman, St. Louis, Mo., West Central Region.

Bryant, a graduate of the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, has been employed by Kmart since 1986. An active member in her community, she is involved in organizing various local health fairs and also accompanies substance abuse counselors on various community presentations to address Rx issues. She volunteers at Crisis Control Ministry Free Pharmacy in Winston-Salem and is a member of the Kmart Good News Committee (the store's employee community outreach group).

Bryant, a former President of

Along the Garden Path Garden Club in full bloom

Along the Garden Path, Garden Club is experiencing a wonderful new year of activities.

The September meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Arlean Gill, many members were present and enjoyed a dinner served by the hostess. At this meeting the new officers were presented and installed. Convention reports and vacation echoes were given.

The October meeting was held in the "Red Room," at Winston-Salem State University. Mrs. Louise Hamilton was acting hostess. Topic for the discussion was "Signs of Fall." Mrs. Ellsworth Banner was the leader.

The November meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Mary Perkins. Topic for discussion was "Decorations for Thanksgiving." Miss Mabel Allen was the leader. A dinner followed the meeting.

The December meeting was held at the Rupert Bell Recreation Center. Acting hostess was Mrs. Savilla Wilson, topic for discussion was "remembering the sick, exchanging cards." Tinley Shewmake was special guest. The hostess later served dinner.

The annual Christmas dinner was a grand success. Members enjoyed a dinner and a beautiful fellowship with family and friends. Julie Johnson welcomed the many guest. Louise Hamilton, who was hostess for the dinner, gave the purpose of the occasion and presented Alderman Virginia Newell who presented certificates to members who have been affiliated with the club for a period of 15 years. The Legend and the Lighting of the Candle, Carrie Mayfield. The presentation of the door prize was given by Mrs. Ellsworth Banner. Mrs. Lucille Sledge, a guest, received the prize. The singing of Christmas Carols was conducted by Mrs. Louise Foy. Prayer and the benediction was given by the Rev. Luther Jones.

The January meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Julie Johnson, the topic for discussion was "Buying a Plant and Taking it Home." The members enjoyed a dinner. Many members were present.

The February meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Eva Lang. The topic for discussion was "Valentine Fun." The leader, Mrs. Verna Grier, gave the group fun activities for Valentine. The members enjoyed the hospitality shown by Mrs. Eva Long.

Members in regular attendance are: Mabel Allen, Ellsworth Banner, Roberta Cooke, Sinclair Crowder, Bonnie Daniels, Ruby Dunlay, Emmalene Goodwin, Arlean Gill, Verna Grier, Ruth Glenn, Louise Hamilton, Mary Elsom, Julie Johnson, Eunice Long, Sharon Lindsay, Mary Perkins, Margie Rooter, Savilla Wilson, and Carrie Mayfield. This club cultivates the beautiful.

Karen Bryant

the Northwest Pharmacists Association, N.C., is currently a member of the National Pharmaceutical Association and on the Task Force on Minorities in Health Professions at Wake Forest University.

More than 1,400 of Kmart's 2,300 U.S. stores have pharmacies.

Kmart Corporation serves America with over 4,000 retail outlets in all 50 states in the United States, Puerto Rico and Canada. Kmart, currently operating 2,377 Kmart stores is also the parent company for Payless Drug Stores, Builders Square, Waldenbooks, FACE Membership Warehouses, The Sports Authority and Office Max.

WSSU to offer GRE Preparatory courses

The Office of Continuing Education at Winston-Salem State University has scheduled a series of GRE Preparatory courses throughout March and April.

The series begins March 14, with an orientation session on "Test-Taking Strategies."

Other topics covered will include "Verbal Skills," March 21; "Reading Comprehension," March 28; "Quantitative and Analytical Ability," March 29 and April 5; and "Test-Taking Strategies," April 5.

All sessions will be held on Saturdays and Sundays from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in room G-77 of the Anderson Center's Continuing Education Division.

For more information on the courses and registration fees, call the Office of Continuing Education at 750-2630.

NAACP Life Membership!

Commissioner Mazie S. Woodruff present a check to Dr. C.B. Heuser, Life Membership Chairman, Winston-Salem Chapter, NAACP, as an initial payment on a NAACP Life Membership. Other local residents making payments recently on NAACP Life Memberships were: Dr. Edwards D. Ingram, the Rev. J. Ray Butler, Commissioner Earline W. Parmon, and Maxie Durant. The Life Membership Program of the NAACP is its "Life Line of Support." A Life Membership costs $500 and must be paid in multiples of $50.

USDA Choice Beef

LONDON BROIL/ TOP ROUND ROAST

$1.98 Lb.

St. James to celebrate second phase of its 110th anniversary

St. James A.M.E. Church, will celebrate the second phase of its 110th anniversary, Sunday, March 15, at 4 p.m.

The Sara Allen Missionary Society, will lead the "One Hundred Women in White" annual occasion.

History reveals that the Missionary Society was named after the first Bishop's wife of the A.M.E. Church. Sara Allen is known as the "Mother" of the A.M.E. Church. In 1827, she organized a Missionary Society called the "Daughters of the Conference."

The Sara Allen Missionary Society continues to help the homeless and imprisoned make donations to the needy, administer to the sick and shut-in members, and recognize elderly missionary ladies, who have given of their time and service in the church and the community.

Mrs. Clarence Stewart, president of the local Sara Allen Missionary Society, will preside over the service.

Guest speaker, for the occasion, will be Mrs. Helen Ray S. Pridgen, from Greater Bethel A.M.E. Church in Charlotte.

Mrs. Veronica Ford, president of the local Young People's Department, will introduce the speaker.

Mrs. Vernadine Carter, will recognize and honor Mrs. Hattie Talbot, Mrs. Geneva Harris, and Mrs. Hattie Powell, for their continued years of service and dedication to the Sara Allen Missionary.

Carlene Stewart

Mrs. Betty Jeffers, will welcome "One Hundred Women in White," who will march in from the 15th Street side of the church.

Mr. Ronald Hughes, minister of music, will be in charge of the music. Mrs. Rachel Check, hostess for the day, will serve refreshments to all attending.

The Rev. Carrington Carter will bring the closing remarks.

69¢ Lb.

Red or White

SEEDLESS GRAPES/ BLUE SEEDED GRAPES

2 Liter - Diet Pepsi, Mtn. Dew, Diet Mtn. Dew & PEPSI COLA

98¢

We Reserve The Right To Limit Quantities.

7.25 Oz. - Food Lion MACARONI & CHEESE

4/$1

Prices in this ad good Wednesday, March 11 thru Tuesday, March 17, 1992.

Mercy Seat sponsors gospel

On Sunday, March 15, Mercy Seat Holiness Church will sponsor a gospel program at the church at 4 p.m.

The program will feature the Manigault Gospel Singers of Harrisburg, Penn., and the Gospel Truths of Charlotte. The Junior Choir of Mercy Seat will also sing. There is no admission charged and the public is invited. The host pastor is Bishop T.R. Rice.

The church is located at 145 Pine Tree Road. For more information call 767-0693.