High Point golf tournament

The thirteenth annual High Point Golf Swingers Tournament will take place on July 18 and 19 at the Blair Park and Oak Hollow Golf Courses in High Point. Starting time for the opening round is 8 a.m. at Blair Park on July 18. Flights will be determined based on first round results. On July 19, the final 18 holes of medal play will take place at Oak Hollow.

The entry fee is $85 which includes cart and green fees for both days. The deadline for entries is July 1.

Trophies will be awarded to the top four golfers in each flight. This year's tournament will include four regular flights, a senior flight and a women's flight (entries permitting). In addition, there will be a Closest To The Pin Contest and Longest Drive Contest on July 18.

Tournament-related activities will include an acquaintance party on July 17 in the Hospitality Room at the Elks Club on Wade St. On July 18, the ladies activities begin at 11 a.m. That night, there will be a dinner at the Elks Club following the tournament. Admission is $5 a person for golfers and guests.

Headquarters for this tournament is the Holiday Inn Market Square in High Point (919/886-7011). For additional information, contact Robert Bruton, tournament director at 919/883-2637.

This youth track club will compete in invitational meets and AAU competition this spring and summer. The club is for boys and girls ages 6-18. Nineteen-year olds can

Winning Combination

Chauncey Surles, Jon Skinner and Jacob Gurantano pictured with coach Art Blevins have developed some winning habits in youth sports as members of the South Fork Gym's all-star basketball team. All three have played on championship teams that won the West Central Invitational Basketball Tournament in different age groups as they moved up in age every year since 1988.
