Dribble-A Thon

Curly Neal

Former Harlem Globetrotters star Curly Neal will be the featured personality for the 1992 Dribble-A-Thon, which is being sponsored by the Sertoma Club. The Dribble-A-Thon is the kick-off event for the 1992 National AAU Basketball Championships in the 17 and Under Division that will be played July 18-25 at the Lawrence Joel Coliseum.

Participants will bring their own basketballs to dribble from start to finish. This is not a race against any other participant, but a challenge to see whether you can dribble your basketball from the starting line to the finish line — about a mile's distance.

The purpose of the Dribble-A-Thon is to raise money for the Salvation Army Boys' Club by getting sponsors. Participants should bring their money and sponsor list to the Hanes Hoisery Softball Field parking lot on July 18 at 8 a.m. The Dribble-A-Thon will begin as soon as final registration is complete.

WESTON TRAVEL
RAM OF THE WEEK

Weston Travel is pleased to recognize Donald "Don" Jones as our Ram of the Week. Don is a native of Winston-Salem and graduated from WSSU in 1960 with a degree in education.

Donald Jones

His favorite instructor, Dr. Joseph N. Patterson gave him a lot of insight about what to expect in life. In fact, it was Dr. Patterson's suggestion, that he "pursue another career," which influenced his decision to join the Army. Don retired in 1980, ending a 22-year career as a Master Sergeant.

He encourages all young people to attend college and get as much education as possible. Don attends United Metropolitan and is a member of the Kimberly Park Chapter of WSSU alumni.
