

WSSU alumna honored

Ritchie G. Carroll, a local educator and Winston-Salem State University alumna, will be honored as the "Delta Great Teacher" at the 41st national convention of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority held in Baltimore, Md. July 10-15.

The purpose of the "Salute to Delta Great Teachers" is to recognize outstanding contributions of classroom teachers who are members of the sorority. Over 100 educators will be honored.

Carroll is a 1975 honor graduate of WSSU. She has been a teacher for 17 years. She is currently a pre-kindergarten teacher at Baldwin Elementary School in Manassas, Va. Prior to coming to Manassas, she was "Teacher of the Year and received a "PTA Educator of the Year" in Charlotte. Since coming to Manassas, she was selected as "Teacher of the Year" and was the recipient of the "Washington Post Agnes Meyer Outstanding Teacher Award."

Carroll is married to William M. Carroll and has two sons, Brion and Bryan. She is the daughter of Dorothy Graham-Wheeler and the late Richard K. Graham.

insufficient number of players to have a game.

The club will be having its annual Grade "B" Tournament on Saturday, July 18 at the Rupert Bell Recreation Center. Registration will begin at 9:30 a.m. and the directors. Congratulations and thanks to these local bridge players for their effort and success.

A Beginning Bridge Class will begin on Tuesday, July 27. Interested persons should contact the Winston-Salem Recreation Department. The class will meet on Tuesdays from 9 to 11 a.m. at Beneath The Elms. R.V. Boone Sr. will be the instructor. A fee will be charged. Other details may be obtained by calling the Recreation Department.

This will be a ten-lesson course, so get your plans made to participate. Learn the game, meet new friends, and fill some of your leisure-time void. The challenge and excitement is well worth the investment.

The 1992 Summer Nationals is right around the corner. Atlanta will be hosting this big event August 5-15 at the Hyatt Regency Hotel. Many local players will be making that scene and climaxing their summer vacations.

The Triad Bridge Unit will be sponsoring a bus to Virginia Beach, Va. in September. This will be the annual Tidewater Bridge Unit's Grade "A" Tournament. Be on the lookout for more details next week!

Geraldine Cary placed in three events. Other local players were Bessie Allen, Charles and Irma Gadson, and Monica Lett. All of the local players earned master points by virtue of winning one or more rounds in team games. Charles Gadson was one of the Urban League now offering memberships

The Winston-Salem Urban League has begun its first effort to build an official network of Urban League supporters throughout the community by offering memberships to the agency.

Members of the Urban League will participate in the election process of new Urban League board members at the annual meeting in August. They will also receive membership cards and a one-year subscription to the Urban League Connection, the agency's quarterly newsletter.

"We join other Urban League affiliates throughout the nation in opening and encouraging the community to become a part of the Urban League family," says the Rev. Douglas Summers, an Urban League board member and membership committee chairman. "We want to partnership with the community in our goal of strengthening families in need, especially African-American families."

The mission of the Urban League is to promote the full participation of African-Americans, other minorities and disadvantaged citizens in the economic and social fabric of society.

All those submitting applications by July 31 will be able to participate in the Urban League's annual meeting to be held in August.

Buy Or Improve A Home With A Special Wachovia Loan.

If Your Family Income Is $29,000 Or Less, You May Qualify. If you'd like to buy a home or make home improvements, we're ready to make you a loan. This special financing program can help you get a loan and help our communities grow.

We're offering flexible, affordable loans with:

- amounts up to 97% of appraised value.
- terms up to 30 years.
- lower closing costs.
- flexible income and credit requirements.

- lower interest rates.
- no mortgage insurance requirements.

It's easier to qualify. This special program makes it easier for you to get a loan because it lets you devote a larger portion of your monthly income to payments than most other plans allow. Even if you have an unusual credit history or job situation, you still may qualify.

The program is available to families with a total family income of $29,000 a year or less who want to finance $60,000 or less to purchase a home, or $50,000 or less to improve an existing home. Your property will need to be an owner-occupied single-family home, townhouse, or condominium.

For more information about this special financing, just drop by a Wachovia office listed below and ask about our Neighborhood Revitalization Loan Program.

At Wachovia, we're making loans to help our communities grow.
