

Knights of Pythagorus, Sullivan B. Humbert, Council #96

Youth attend conference at A&T

The 17th annual Assemblage of the North Carolina Council Order of the Knights of Pythagoras and the 16th annual Assemblage of the North Carolina Gleaners was held on the campus of North Carolina A & T State University on July 9-11. The two youth groups are part of the Order of Eastern Star of the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge Free and Accepted Masons, Jurisdiction of North Carolina. Over 1,200 youth, grand officers, supervisors, and advisors attended.

The youth who attended the three-day assemblage participated in oratorical, talent, and poetry and short story contests. They also played basketball and held a swimming relay and disco. Two knights, Woodrow Wilson III and Tony Gwyn, placed second in the 440-relay race.

The groups were welcomed to the conference by District #12

The keynote speaker for the joint session was the Rev. Stacey Frazier of New Light Baptist Church of Greensboro. The 15-year-old minister encouraged his peers "to trust in the Lord, do good, say no to drugs, and endure to the end."

The knights and gleaners elected and installed their 1993 officers.

The grand officers attending the conference were Most Worshipful Grand Master Brother William C. Parker, Grand Worthy Patron Brother Frank Evans, Grand Worthy Matron Sister Marian Covington, and 16th District Deputy Grand Master Elmer LeGrand.

Local knights attending were Junior Knight Robert Greer, Woodrow Wilson III, Tony Gwyn, Master Knight Charles "Chip" Mathews, Travis Cutler, Mohennon Hill, Courtney Matthews, Paul Jackson, Kerry Wilson, Marty Yates, Shea Fryer, Corey Gwyn, and Justin Monroe.

They were supervised by 15th District Advisor Brother Robert Cunningham, Knight District Deputy Brother Paul Miller, and District Deputy Grand Master Brother Frances B. Eaton.

Local Gleaners attending were Regina Moore, Dawn Burn, Sonja Epps, Alexandria Shelton, and Jamir Tennie. They were supervised by 11th District Gleaner Chairperson Sister Sarah Richmond, Advisor Sister Fannie E. Dalton, Advisor Sister Margaret Linton, and Advisor Sister Pat Rhodes-Landingham.

Winston-Salem State University Alumnae members who attended the Delta National Convention.

Deltas attend nat'l convention

Thirty-eight members of the Winston-Salem Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority attended the 41st National Convention of the sorority in Baltimore. Over 7,000 Deltas participated in plenary sessions, public meetings, and the ecumenical and memorial services.

Using the theme, "The Delta Launch 2000: A New Leadership for the New Century," workshops were conducted on caring and sharing; meeting the needs of our elderly population; homelessness: facts, fiction, and remedies; protocol and traditions; creative ways of preserving Delta's heritage; the state of education in black America; sexual harassment and gender bias; and political participation.

Among the workshop leaders were: Dr. Gloria Scott, president of Bennett College; Mona Bailey, former president of the sorority; Thelma Daley, former president; Hortense Canady, former president; Jeanne L. Noble; Dr. Freeman Hrabowski, interim president, University of Maryland; and Dr. Vivian Pinn, director of Office of Research for Women's Health.

Keynote speakers for the convention were the honorable Dr. Louis Sullivan, secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services; Dr. Israel Tribble, president of Florida Endowment Fund for Higher Education; Donna Oliver, associate professor at Bennett College and the 1987 National Teacher of the Year; the Honorable Johnny Ford, mayor of Tuskegee, Alabama and former chairman of the World Conference of Mayors; Dr. Camille Cosby; Dr. Joe L. Reed, associate executive director of the Alabama Education Association and chairman of the Alabama Democratic Conference.

The convention is a time to experience sisterhood at the broad organizational level, to share individual and collective programmatic success, and to enjoy sisterly com-raderie. Dr. Yvonne Kennedy, national president, stressed commitment, loyalty, dedication, and sisterhood in her annual message.

The next convention meets in 1994 in St. Louis, Missouri.

Local delegates were Louise Smith, chapter president, and Crystal Hairston. Other members who attended included: Denise Adams, Mable Allen, Sharon Askew, Elsie Blackman, Andrais Brandon, Hazel Brown, Trevonia Brown, Julia Chisholm, Deborah Daniels, Sadie Daniels, Geraldine Davis, Larn Dillard, Karen Duckett, Poullette Everett, Laverne Gaither, Norman Guthrie, Cheryl Harrison, Doris Herrell, Diedra Howie, Jacqueline Jessup, Julia Johnson, Elva Jones, Grace Knight, Billie Matthews, Clementine Mauney, Doris Moultry, Patsy Murrill, Iris Officer, Pamela Pryor, Manderline Scales, Patricia Shouse, Juanita Tatum, Birdie Lee Vaughn, Pamela Wagner, and Gladys Wilson.

What Good Is Owning A House If You Can't Get The Money To Repair It?

A leaking roof, bursting water pipes, or rotted porch can take the fun out of owning a home. Especially when you have to borrow money to fix it.

But here's some good news.

If your household income is less than $27,500, you may qualify for our special Home Improvement Program, which lets you borrow up to $15,000 for major repairs and improvements at a low interest rate. You even save on things like the appraisal and credit report.

Because this is a Tax Advantage Loan, you can also deduct up to 100% of the interest. So apply for a home improvement loan at Southern National. It's the smart way to keep your home looking good.
