

Carver Alumni inducts four former Carver students

The inaugural Hall of Fame of the Carver High School Alumni Association will be held on Saturday September 5 at 7 p.m. in the Benton Convention Center. The induction ceremony will take place at the awards dinner. There will be four inductees in the class of 1992, who will be inducted in two categories.

Dr. Sadie Brown-Webster and Sarah Friende-Hamlin were inducted in the category, Excellence in Academics.

George "Porgie" Jones and Harden "Butch" Wheeler were inducted in the category, Excellence in Athletics.

Excellence in Achievement will not have any inductees this year.

Sarah Friende-Hamlin was valedictorian for the Carver class of 1939. After graduating from Winston-Salem State Teachers College with honors, Friende-Hamlin began teaching but that was only one of her many life roles. As an entrepreneur, she and her husband owned and operated Sackie's Florist. She is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority and Saint Paul United Methodist Church in Kernersville.

Dr. Sadie Brown-Webster, director of the division of nursing at Winston-Salem State University graduated from Carver in 1952. Valedictorian of her class, she was active in the student government, French Club and Drama Club.

A graduate of WSSU, Webster earned membership into the Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society and Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

George C. Jones was a five-letterman in high school and made player of the week several times during his Carver High School days. As captain of the football team in 1956 and 1957, Jones led his team to many victories. In tennis, he coached two state tennis championships.

He is currently the assistant secretary for administration in the department of human resources.

Harden B. Wheeler Jr. known as "Butch", graduated from Carver High School in 1965 and went on to WSSU where he majored in physical education. Presently he is a special education teacher at Paisley Middle School.

Wheeler is an active member of First Baptist Church where he sings on the men's choir and a member of the finance committee.
