stantial to offer. Rookie Richard Huntley and sophomore Gregory Smith produced in a big way in their first collegiate game. Huntley ran for 124 yards on 16 carries (7.75 ypc) and a pair of touchdowns, including a game-clinching 61-yarder that came late in the fourth quarter. Smith twisted, spun and bounced off of tacklers for 79 yards in 22 attempts.

Huntley produced what proved to be the biggest play of the game as the Rams began to control the game clock to protect their 20-18 lead with less than three minutes left to play in the game. On a third and short yardage situation, the Rams faked a dive off the right side, then gave the ball to Huntley on a counter that caught the Vikings defense overpursuing.

The rookie found the seam, skipped past an out of position linebacker, then sprinted the distance to ensure victory for Winston. "Once I saw the linebacker bite on the crossing pattern, I knew I had an open field," Huntley said. "I got into the secondary and that was it."

Returning to action couldn't have been sweeter or more satisfying for Huntley, a redshirt freshman who didn't play last year because of grades. Two seasons ago, the 6-1, 215 pounder was one of the most highly sought prep school backs in North Carolina.

Prior to last Saturday, the last time Huntley took a hand-off in competition was the summer of '91 at the North Carolina high school all-star football game.

"After sitting out last year, I was very anxious to play," said Huntley, whose home is Monroe. "Before the game, I was very nervous and knew it would take some time for me to get loose. But our offensive line did a great job and that enabled me to do what I did."

WSSU vs. A&T

guys who are still getting the hang of the college game.

That will not be the case this Saturday.

As usual, this figures to be a rugged standoff where the running game and defense will play prominent roles. In the final analysis, turnovers should prove to be the difference.

With frontliners Kelley Goodman, William Barringer and Rico Black doing their bulldozer imitations, the Rams will run the ball maybe 80 percent of the time.

Then they'll mix things up with a pass here and a pass there (mostly to Orande Gasden), just to let the Aggies know that they can throw the football with some level of proficiency.

A&T also adores the run, but will put the ball in the air a bit more. Tight end James Lancaster and running back Barry Turner are prime receivers.

David Russell, formerly of North Forsyth, is eager to leave a lasting impression against his hometown college. The Winston junior has established himself as the Aggies starting quarterback and stands ready to do his part to dismantle the Rams.

On paper, at least, this matchup appears to be a toss up. If both teams avoid costly miscues, the kicking game, or the lack of one, will settle the issue.

In that regard, A&T has an edge with rookie placekicker Carl Warren, who kicked a 37-yard field goal vs. the Eagles.

Buy Or Improve A Home With A Special Wachovia Loan.

If Your Family Income Is $29,000 Or Less, You May Qualify.

If you'd like to buy a home or make home improvements, we're ready to make you a loan. This special financing program can help you get a loan and help our communities grow.

We're offering flexible, affordable loans with:

- amounts up to 97% of appraised value.
- terms up to 30 years.
- lower closing costs.
- flexible income and credit requirements.

- lower interest rates.
- no mortgage insurance requirements.

It's easier to qualify.

This special program makes it easier for you to get a loan because it lets you devote a larger portion of your monthly income to payments than most other plans allow. Even if you have an unusual credit history or job situation, you still may qualify.

The program is available to families with a total family income of $29,000 a year or less who want to finance $60,000 or less to purchase a home, or $50,000 or less to improve an existing home. Your property will need to be an owner-occupied single-family home, townhouse, or condominium.

For more information about this special financing, just drop by a Wachovia office listed below and ask about our Neighborhood Revitalization Loan Program.
