Step One Now Offering Drug Education School

Because it is a well-known fact that intervening in the early stages of a person's alcohol/drug problem is the most successful method for changing the behavior of an alcohol/drug abuser, the Drug Education School has been created to help meet this challenge.

STEP ONE's Drug Education School (DES) is a 15 hour, 6 session course designed as an early intervention program for persons 16 and over, who are just beginning to experience consequences from their alcohol/drug use. The goal of the program is to reduce the likelihood of future substance abuse problems of the participants. To achieve this goal, DES students are educated about the effects of drug/alcohol use and the possible legal, social, physical, mental and financial consequences. Students will also learn applicable behavior modification techniques.

Although this program began at STEP ONE in June 1992, it has currently been offered only on Monday and Wednesday evenings. However, due to increased demand, a morning class has been scheduled to begin October 5, 1992 and run Monday and Wednesday 9-11:30 a.m. until October 21.

STEP ONE's Drug Education School accepts referrals from employers, family members, community agencies, attorneys, legal system officials and schools. Class sizes are limited and students must preregister. Currently there are openings for the morning October sessions.

Michael Gray, Intervention Services Coordinator and Director of the Drug Education School for STEP ONE, states that the response to this program has been overwhelming. "It is obvious from the number of people applying for admission that DES answers a great need in the community and now by offering two scheduling options, more people can be reached." Gray adds that spouses and other adult family members can attend with the enrolled DES student.

For more information on DES, scheduling for fees, and other STEP ONE services, call 725-8389.
