

Ebony Fashion Fair Sept for October 30th

The 35th annual Ebony Fashion Fair "Living the Fantasy" will show off more than 200 fashions by top designers in Winston-Salem at M.C. Benton Convention Center on Friday, Oct. 30, at 8 p.m. The world's largest traveling fashion show is produced by Ebony Magazine and is sponsored by Winston-Salem Urban League Guild for the benefit of scholarships and Urban League programs.

and director of the show, personally selects fashions from exclusive collections of formal designers such as Yves Saint Laurent, Oscar de la Renta, Valentino, Bob Mackie, Giorgio Sant'Angelo, Fabrice and Bruce Oldfield.

Exquisite garments complete with the latest accessories, 10 female and two male models, commentator, music director, stage and business managers, and wardrobe staff travel from coast to coast on a special chartered Greyhound bus. Because of the unprecedented demand for sponsorship of the show by charitable organizations around the country, Ebony Fashion Fair now tours two seasons — the East and Midwest from September through December and the South and West from January through May — appearing in more than 190 cities.

Joan Cardwell, president of the Guild, says that proceeds from last year's show provided scholarship assistance to five students.

Tickets may be purchased at the Winston-Salem Urban League office.

When "I Will" Comes Before "I Do"

Better Mate If I Wait Until Marriage

Teen sex can change lives forever. As a popular poster puts it: "He's got your eyes and your nose and the next 18 years of your life." Each year, more than 1 in 10 of the girls aged 15 to 19 become pregnant in Forsyth County. In our survey of 1,269 youths, we found that many consider sex necessary to fit in with the crowd. There may be no religion in America that promotes extramarital sex, but sexual promiscuity is presented daily as acceptable through popular music, television, videos and films. Not surprisingly, sexually active teens don't believe there's anything wrong with sex before marriage either. Teens who don't have sex, especially girls, disagree.
