

Game Of The Week; Dudley Pounds Reynolds 34-18 from page B1

with 18 seconds remaining in the half. After three unsuccessful attempts to score, the Demons played conservative. Quarterback McCullum dropped back and completed a screen pass to his brother Julian McCullum, but he was instantly leveled and coughed up the ball. Panther linebacker Tyrone Williamson scooped up the ball and scampered 70 yards for a touchdown to give the Panthers a 14 point advantage. The Panthers missed the extra point, leaving the score 20-6 at the half.

The second half went along the same lines as the first, big plays made the difference. The Panthers chewed up more than six minutes off of the game clock on their next possession. Panther quarterback Ragsdale completed another pass to Bell, this time on a 35 yard slant, to set up another score. Chris Caldwell scored on a three yard plunge to give the Panthers a 26-6 lead with 3:34 left in the third quarter. They missed the extra point attempt.

After several Demon second half possessions were halted, the tension reached its peak. Following a Demons punt, Panthers returner Bell, returned the ball to the Demons 35-yard line, where he was greeted by a host of Demon defensive players, on the Panthers sideline. While the play was finishing, a fight erupted on the Panther sideline. Demons Wide receiver Ricardo Howell, was the only player reprimanded for his actions. Howell was ejected from the contest.

The Panthers used the yardage from the penalty to score their last touchdown on the evening to lead 32-6 with four minutes to play in the game. Caldwell bulled his way in for the two point conversion to give the Panthers a substantial 34-6 lead.

Although the Demons finished the game with two desperately needed touchdowns, it was too little too late.

Vikings quarterback Essick threw a 45 yard pass to Grooms for a touchdown.

The Vikings led 22-0 at the half.

Mt. Tabor 14
West 7

After a scoreless first half, Mt. Tabor controlled the line of scrimmage and scored on two long drives. Kory Lathan scored for the Titans.

Greensboro Smith 18
Carver 8

Carver jumped out to the early lead on Jimmy Manns 62 yard scamper but Smith did not let up. Smith scored before the half, but missed the extra point, to make the score 8-6 at halftime. Smith scored two second half touchdowns to secure the victory.

East Forsyth 32
Glenn 20

East exploded into the contest, establishing a 24-8 lead at the half. Glenn rallied closing the gap to 24-20, but the Eagles were too tough. Brandon Tapp and Deron Simmons led the Bobcats.

Parkland 12
Greensboro Grimsley 6

Parkland solidified its chances for playing for the conference crown with hard fought victory against a determined Whirls team. Derwin Isiah and Rodney Minor scored a touchdown for the Mustangs. "I would like to see my offense score more points. The game is going to be a toss-up," said Coach Tony Barnes of Parkland. "Which ever team makes the fewest turnovers, will win the game."

The championship will be played tonight in Greensboro at Dudley beginning at 7:00 p.m.

Key positions to watch will be the quarterback and offensive line. Parkland sent its starting jayvee quarterback, John Otati and fullback Brian Mack up to the varsity two weeks ago.

Since their departure, the Mustangs have struggled to put points on the board. Dudley is small but very quick. Panther quarterback Marcus Ragsdale and split end Nakia Bell are key players to watch for the Panthers.

Alabama Bulldogs Regain Men's Cross Country Championship

After finishing third last year behind Morehouse and Tuskegee, Alabama A & M finally got back on top and reversed the order of finish this year.

This time, the Bulldogs came in first with 44 points, Morehouse was second with 54 points, and Tuskegee was third with 81 points.

This was a thrilling meet that saw two Bulldogs come down the home stretch neck and neck to finish first and second. Edward Gar-duno was the first runner to cross the finish line. He broke the tape at 28:58 and was followed by his teammate Melvin Watson, who came across at 28:59.

The Most Outstanding Male of last years' Cross Country Championship, David Nbaba of Tuskegee University, came in third with a time of thirty minutes flat. Nbaba was followed by Octavious Terrell of Morehouse who finished fourth with a time of 30:10.

In the women's division, Alabama A&M University took four of the top 10 spots to walk away with first place honors.

This meet was just as exciting as the men, because the first four places were decided by less than four seconds.

The winner was Toni Peterson of LeMoyn-Owen College with a time of 21:21, but she could not get any help from her teammates and LOC finished last in the overall team standing. all four of her teammates ran at the back of the pack and finished 39th, 40th 41st, and 42nd

Second place went to Jakkie Henderson of Alabama A&M with a time of 21:22. Henderson was followed by her teammate Andruelle Marcelin, who finished one second later at 21:23. fourth place went to Jarens Murray of Tuskegee University with a time of 21:25

Alabama A&M Notches Its 30th Win Of The Season With 3-0 Victory Over Paine in Tournament

The Lady Bulldogs of Alabama A & M University seem to remind one of the Energizer bunny when it comes to volleyball. They just keep winning and winning and winning. Alabama A & M has not lost an SIAC Volleyball Championship match since tournament play began in 1987. Their record in the championship match of SIAC Volleyball Tournaments is an impressive 6-0.

This year, the Lady Bulldogs breezed through the double elimination tournament. They won all four of their matches and only lost one set. In the first round, Alabama A & M defeated Savannah state 3-0 (15-10, 15-7, 15-0). In the quarter finals, Alabama A&M beat Paine 3-1 (15-3, 15-8, 9-15, 15-6). The semifinals is where they met the #1 seed from the East Region, Fort Valley. Fort Valley proved to be no match for Alabama A & M as the Lady Bulldogs advanced to the finals with a 3-0 victory (15-4, 15-4, 15-9). In the finals, Alabama A & M squared off against Paine for the second time. This time, Alabama A & M did not give up a set and swept the Lady Lions of Paine College 3-0 (18-16, 15-11, 15-11). Last year, Alabama A & M defeated Paine 3-1 in the finals.

The leaders for Alabama A & M this season were Katina Thompson, and Carol Ward. For the second consecutive year, Carol Ward was voted SIAC Player of the Year and Tournament MVP by the league's coaches. Katina Thompson also received some accolades for her hard work on the court. She was named to the All Tournament Team and voted Setter of the Year this year, as well as last year.

Alabama A & M finished its 1992 volleyball campaign with 30 wins and only seven defeats for a 81% winning percentage. In conference play during the regular season, they won all eight of their matches
