

Rev. Mary Hunter Young Will Be Guest Speaker At Shiloh Baptist Church Women's Day Service

The Rev. Mary Hunter Young, a native of Enfield, will be the Women's Day speaker at Shiloh Baptist Church Sunday, Nov. 8, at 11 a.m.

Rev. Young is a 1980 graduate of Virginia Union University with a bachelor of science degree in mathematics and a 1985 graduate of the School of Theology at Virginia Union, where she received the master of divinity degree. She was awarded the S.H. James Theological Prize for class valedictorian. While a student at the School of Theology, she was a Benjamin E. Mays Fellow, and received a three-year scholarship from the Fund for Theological Education. Rev. Young has experience in the secular arena as a computer programmer and analyst, working with both religious and non-religious organizations. She is presently employed as the director of church research and renewal with the Baptist General Convention of Virginia, where she administrates a $317,000 grant given to the convention by the Lilly Endowment to study the black Baptist churches in the state and to give seed monies to groups of rural churches wishing to become involved in collaborative ministry efforts.

Rev. Mary Hunter Young

Rev. Young is the author of a meditation guide, "Teach Us to Pray," and is a contributing author to a packet of material produced by American Baptist Churches, Church and Community Development Unit, "So You Want to Renew Your Congregation." She has also worked with some members of the Small Church Team of ABC in the development of a training curriculum for rural and small churches, "Seeds of Renewal."

She is a faculty member of the Evans-Smith Institute for church leadership at the School of Theology, Virginia Union University, and shares her gifts as a workshop leader, preacher, lecturer, and teacher statewide.

Rev. Young holds membership in the following organizations: The Virginia State NAACP; the Baptist Minister's Conference of Richmond and Vicinity; the King William County School Renewal Committee; the Virginia Women in Ministry Conference; the American Baptist Women in Ministry. She is married to the Rev. Barry Young, and they have one daughter, Jessica Jane Young. Sallie E. Brown is the leader of women at the Shiloh Baptist Church. Rev. Paul Arthur Lowe Jr. is pastor. Sallye J. Edwards is program chairperson.

Church Celebrates Pastor's Anniversary

The New Institutional Baptist Church will celebrate its pastor's 6th anniversary on Nov. 5. The Rev. Billy Ray Smith and Rock Hill Baptist Church will be the guests. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m.

On Friday, Nov. 6, the Rev. Samuel Cornelius and New Jerusalem Baptist Church will be the guests. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The anniversary will close on Sunday, Nov. 8. The morning worship service's guests will be speaker Rev. Reginald Smoot and the congregation of Middle Fork Christian Church. Service will begin at 11 a.m.

The guest speaker for the evening service will be the Rev. Derieux Johnson and Providence Baptist Church of Kernersville. Service will begin at 3 p.m. Dinner will be served before the service.

Rev. Anthony L. Hines

The public is cordially invited to attend all of the anniversary events. The Rev. Anthony L. Hines is pastor of New Institutional Baptist Church.

Fellowship Bible Baptist Church

Church Celebrates Anniversary

Fellowship Bible Baptist Church, 1611 Locust Street will celebrate its 13th anniversary Sunday Nov 8, at 3 p.m. The Rev. Otha L. Richardson is Pastor

The guest Pastor will be the Rev. Valice W. Cuthbertson of Haven of Rest Baptist Church in Charlotte. Special music will be presented by their Church Choir.

A warm welcome is extended to all to come and worship God with us.

Celebration Of Lay Men's Day

Bethania A.M.E. Zion Church, Bethania-Rural Hall Road, will celebrate its annual Lay Men's Day on Sunday, November 8, the speaker for the service will be Mark S. Woodson, a member of the Church. Mr. Woodson is a native of Fayetteville where he graduated from public schools and received an associate degree in engineering technology from Fayetteville Technical Institute.

Mark S. Woodson

He received his Bachelors degree in engineering technology from the University of N.C. at Charlotte and a masters of business administration from the University of N.C. at Greensboro. He has additional studies with a major concentration in religious studies.

As a member of Bethania A.M.E. Zion Church, he serves on the Steward Board, Usher Board, and Scholarship Committee.

He is chairman of the Finance Committee and the Men's Organization. Mr. Woodson is a member of various professional and community organizations including the Executive committee Old Hickory Council Explorer Clubs, Chairman-Scholarship Committee of Alliance of Black Telecommunication Workers, and volunteer to the Salvation Army Boys and Girls Clubs and drug prevention programs.

He is currently employed with AT & T as a senior projects manager. He is married to former Debbie Springs. They have Three children.

The Rev. Dr. Donald C. Nollness Sr. is the Pastor of Bethania A.M.E. Zion Church.

Comfortable Sweaters At Comfortable Prices.

Kmart has pretty patterned sweaters in an assortment of styles with cables and embroidered trims. And the $14.00 Kmart price is just as comfy as the sweaters.

Styles may vary by store.

