Members of Goler Memorial A.M.E. Zion Church participated in the Christian Education Department's first Leadership Training Institute.

Goler's Leadership Training

The Christian Education Department of Goler Memorial A.M.E. Zion Church's first Leadership Training Institute was well received. The sessions were conducted by the pastor, Seth O. Lartey, and Dr. Jewett L. Walker, former secretary-treasurer of the Home Mission, Brotherhood Pensions and Ministerial Relief of the A.M.E. Zion Church.

Others participating in the sessions were: the John James Men's class; the Central Bible class; the Intermediate class; the Roxie Baxter class; and Brother Louis Hunter Jr., Brother Aaron Orr, Sister Pamela Phillips, the Rev. Nancetta Myers, and the Rev. Albert Downing.

The institute ended with a Love Feast and rededication service, followed by a fellowship meal prepared by Sister Elsie Burke.

The weeklong event's theme was "Building a Unified Church."

Ministers visiting the sessions from the Winston-Salem district were: the Rev. Frank Cornelius, the Rev. William Puryear, the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Bailey, the Rev. Joseph Nance, the Rev. Rockford Penn, the Rev. Dairl Scott, Brother Ralph Cousins, and the Rev. Howard Daniels, pastor of Living Waters Non-Denominational Church.

The choirs of Goler provided the music.

Rev. Lartey thanked the participants for their support and cooperation.
