

Bethania AME Zion Church Extends Tribute

The Bethania African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church in Winston-Salem will extend tribute to nine active teachers who are employed with the Winston-Salem Public Schools and are members of Bethania Church on Sunday during the 11 a.m. service.

Special tribute and award will be given to Ericsteen Jefferson Lash for over 30 years as a teacher and presently employed at the Old Town Elementary School in Winston-Salem. Lash, a mother of two: Melodie Vereen of Dayton, Ohio; and Cedric Lash of Atlanta, GA, has two grandchildren. She holds a B.S. degree from Winston-Salem State University and a M.S. degree from N.C. A&T University. She is president of IOTA Phi Lambda Sorority-Beta Alpha Chapter. She serves as a deaconess, stewardess, steward, missionary, and class leader at Bethania AME Zion Church and over the past fifteen years as deaconess and steward was very instrumental in helping to mold countless number of children of all races as well as those of our church and community. Dr. Donald C. Holness, Sr., pastor, will present "The Achievement Award" and "Teacher of the Year" 1993 from the church to Lash for her unselfish devotion to the community and church during the worship service and celebration; he will preach the last black history sermon of February on the subject of "The Black Man's Religion and His Adversities." The church at 2110 Bethania-

Ericsteen J. Lash Rural Hall Road extends the invitation to all who will attend.

Ministers Conference Of Winston-Salem

The Ministers Conference of Winston-Salem and vicinity is pleased to announce the successful fundraising for the Martin Luther King Memorial Seed Scholarship. The fund raiser awards seven $1,000 scholarships for the 1993-1994 school year.

These scholarships will be given to economically deprived students who demonstrate a determina-

The Ministers Conference is not looking for star athletes or straight "A" students from the middle class, but the group is seeking to assist a young person toward lifting himself and his family and community from poverty to stability.

The Martin Luther King Memorial Seed Scholarship will be awarded during the freshman year of college on a $500 per semester the Ministers Conference.

The Ministers Conference has led the coordination of the celebration of the national holiday of Dr. King's birthday in Winston-Salem for the last eight years. Committee chairman has been Dr. Sernour T. Chum Sr., pastor of the Mount Zion Baptist Church. The newly elected and installed president is Ronald P.
