

Open House at Boy's Club

The Salvation Army Boy's Club on Martin Luther King Drive held Open House on March 12.

The purpose of the event was to give parents and families an opportunity to socialize and participate in some of the activities that the members enjoy on a daily basis.

Tomiko Rice, social recreation director said, "We want to involve our parents and family members in more of our programs and this would give us the opportunity to show them why the members love coming to the club."

The evening started with members showing their parents how to shoot pool, play table tennis, foos ball, and bumper pool, and refreshments were served by Faye Jones.

The basketball competition then began. These events were open for competition between the parents and residents of the community.

James Smith conducted a half-court shot contest, a free-throw contest and a three-point contest. The participants were: Mike Lampkins, Angela Washington, Shawn Spurgeon, Arthur Green, Rhonda Cuthbertsm, Beverly Carter, Byron Ingram, Cheryl Ingram, David Hairson, Lonnie Blue, Mayola Dobson, and Wesley Champman.

In the free-throw competition Coach Arthur Green put the pressure on by hitting four out of five shots, but this was no threat to Chris Carter's mother, Beverly Carter, who also hit four out of five shots.

The winners were as follows: Beverly Carter, first place; Arthur Green, second place; and Mayola Dobson, (mother of Michael Shane Dobson), third place.

Rice was in the 3-point shootout and Byron Ingram, the father of Joshua and Elmo was able to sink three out of five 3-pointers. David Hairson hit two out of five, Lonnie Blue, father of Dion Blue hit one out of five, Arthur Green also hit one out of five and the Boy's Club Director of Operations, Angela Washington, hit one out of five shots.

The half-court winners were as follows: Dion Blue, first place; Mayola Dobson, second place; and David Hairson, third place.

According to Joan Morris, Boy's Club Unit Director: "The entire evening was a success." She stated that the club plans to have an Open House at least once every six months, so the community will have the opportunity to experience what the staff preaches to the members and that is "We are Family."
