

Hanes Hosiery WCCC Invitational Action

Hanes Hosiery Defeats West Central

In the first round of the West Central Invitational 16 and Under Basketball Tournament, Hanes Hosiery had seven players in double figures as they crushed West Central White Squad 97-53.

Hanes was led by power forward Darius White with 29 points. Daniel Hafford had 16 points; Lamont Joe, 14; Derrick Horne and Nathan Snipes, 11 points each and Lavon Archie and Hiwatha Hoover with 10 points each.

Horne pulled down 17 rebounds while White had 15 and Hafford 12.

Lamont Joe and Nathan Snipes had nine assist each.

West Central was led by John Holder with 13 points and David Somers with 10.

Hanes 16 and Under All-Stars Overpower Stokes

In the West Central Invitational Basketball Tournament Semi-Finals, the Hanes Hosiery 16 and Under All-Star Team crushed the Stokes County All-Stars 89-67.

Hanes used a man-to-man defense that Stokes couldn't handle to jump out to an early lead and maintained easily throughout the game.

Darius White was a force inside scoring 30 points, including two "nasty dunks" that brought the crowd to it's feet!

Guards Daniel Hafford and Lamont Joe busted the nets from the outside scoring 15 points each, and both had several beautiful passes inside to White for easy baskets.

Forward Lavon Archie had 14 points and all-around athlete Nathan Snipes added 11 additional points.

Cortez Johnson, Terrell Gaiter, Hiwatha Hoover and Robert Joe also contributed excellent plays to the game.

Hanes 16 And Under All-Stars Win WCCC

Lamont Joe had a super game scoring 20 points, including several clutch baskets, while Darius white controlled the inside despite being in foul trouble early. Daniel Hafford led the rebounding to lead the Hanes Hosiery All-Star to a 70-49 victory over the WCCC Red All-Stars and capture the West Central Invitational Championship.

White, Hafford and Derrick Hornes combined to pull down 41 rebounds as the Hosiery controlled both the offensive and defensive boards.

It was a 12-point game going into the third quarter, but Hanes Hosiery pulled away with great defense from Nathan Snipes and Hafford, and a 'mean dunk' by White off an offensive rebound, which sparked the Hosiery to run away with the game 70-49.

Hanes 10-12 Year-Old Lose Heart Breaker

The Hanes Hosiery 10-12 year-old lost to a very big WCCC All-Star Team 52-48.

Despite the big size advantage that WCCC had over the Hanes Team, Hanes really played their hearts out.

It was a close game all the way through, but Hanes couldn't hit some key shots toward the end.

Hanes was led by Trey Williams and Jonathan Webb with 12 points each, while K. C. Dobbins, Tony Surles and Derek Chisolm had six each.

Other Hanes Hosiery standouts included Carter Williams, Jamal Scott, Jordan Lash, Joe Alexander, Tommy McGuinn, Tim Penn and Payton Triplett.

Hanes 10-12 All-Stars Defeats South Fork

The Hanes Hosiery 10-12 Year-Old All-Stars bounced back from their loss to WCCC, and defeated South Fork 40-28.

Tommy McGuinn had five blocked shots and six points, while Trey Williams hit seven points and several key defensive plays to lead the Hanes All-Stars!

Jonathan Webb led Hanes in rebounding with nine, while McGuinn had seven and Carter Williams, six.

South Fork was led by Dennis Evans with eight points and Oscar Ledbetter with six.

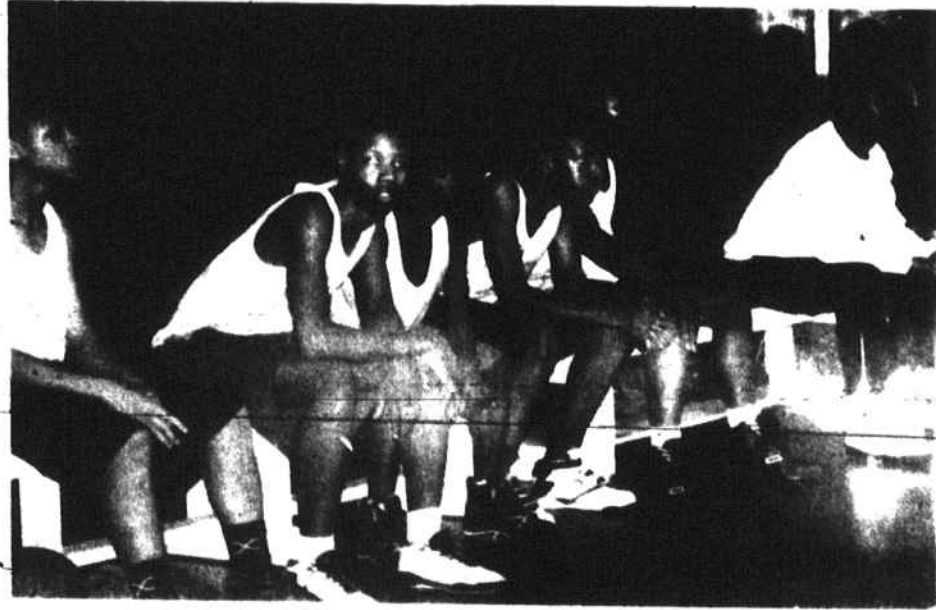

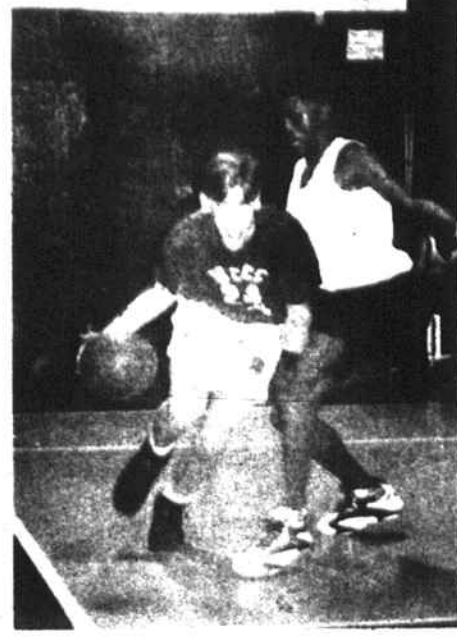

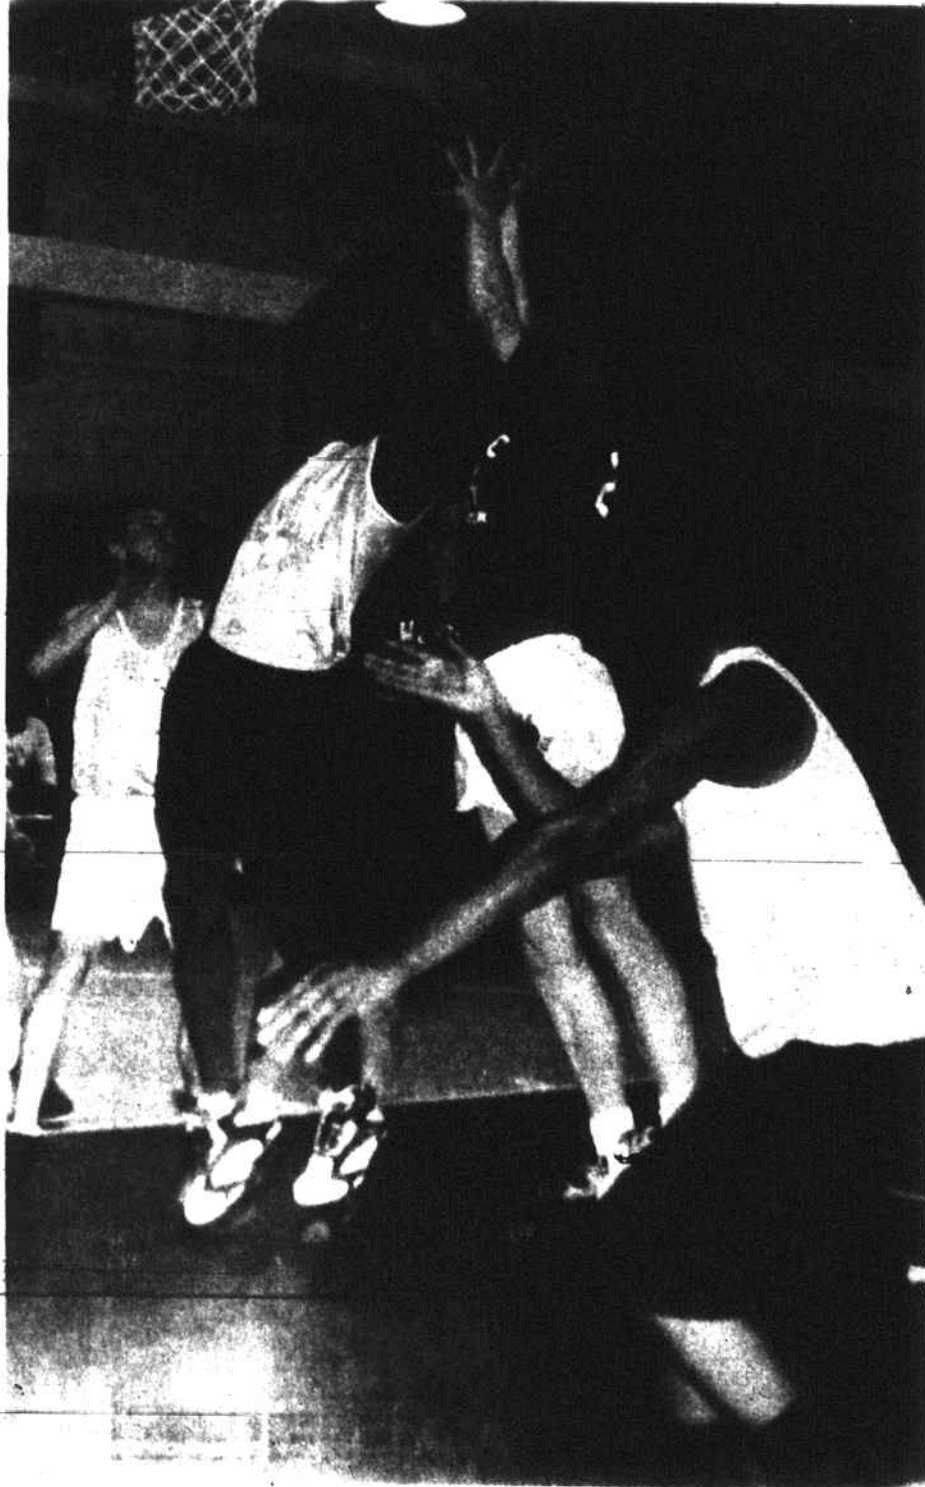

Stokes County Takes Third Over Hanes

In the third place consolation game at the West Central 10-12 year-old Invitational, Stokes County youth league All-Stars overwhelmed a smaller Hanes Hosiery 10-12 year-old squad 43-35 for third place.

Tony Surles led Hanes with 10 points, while Trey Williams had nine. Jon Webb chipped in six points, Payton Triplett and Derek Chisolm combined for eight additional points.

Tommy McGuinn and Carter Williams led the Hanes rebounding.

Sports Potpourri

NCAA Womens Final Four

Texas Tech players run out on the court to hug star Sheryl Swoopes, right, who led their team with 47 points to a 84-82 victory over Ohio State in the championship game of the NCAA Women's Final Four at Atlanta.

Hanes Hosiery WCC Champions

Hanes Hosiery 14 & Under Undefeated All-Stars 1993 WCCC Champions, pictured front row, left to right: Assistant Coach Hurk, Jamie Harold, Chauncey Surles, Ryan Otatti and Kevin McLean. Second row: Javon May, Kendro Pollard, Rico Bruton and Jacob Guarantano. Third row: Head Coach Art Blevins, Allen Hall, Josh Bailey, Coach Gary Lash, Kevin Wilson, Assistant Coach Willie Guarrantano and Assistant Coach Clarence Hall.

Magic "J"

Former Los Angeles Laker Earvin "Magic" Johnson beams a big smile as he speaks at a news conference in Tokyo recently. The former pro basketball superstar, who has tested positive for HIV virus, was a keynote speaker at an international symposium on AIDS.

Hanes Hosiery All-Stars

Hanes Hosiery All-Stars 1993 WCCC Champions, pictured front row, left to right: Nathan Snipes, Terrell Gaiter, Daniel Hafford, Rob Joe, Lamont Joe. Second row: Coach Art Blevins, Lavon Archie, Cortez Johnson, Darius White, Derek Horne, Hiwatha Hoover, Coach Gary Lash, and Assistant Coach Hurk.