A Clear Kick

The Winston-Salem Central YMCA has about 120 youngsters competing on its 4-5 year-old soccer league. This week's theme for the teams was "good sportsmanship".

The Sharks played the Knights. The Sharks opened their season with Brian Temas, May Friedman, Ryan Taylor and Ben Pulliam leading the Sharks offensive attack.

Carl Hairston Jr., William Surton and Betsy Serertz were standouts for the Knights with good sportsmanship and good floor action.

The Deacons also played the Untouchables with Nicholas Kennedy and Chris Wolla playing well for the Deacons. Standouts for the Untouchables were Heather Nelson and Alex Folmar.

With a battle for the nets between the Celtics and Hornets, Norris Evans and Kylke Hirsch of the Celtics had good skills in defense and Michael Zagoria, Ryan Gash and Darius Hamilton of the Hornets all showing great sportsmanship.
