KINARD

Ruby Pearl Klutz Kinard of 598 Kinard Drive died April 12 at her home. She was a native of Mecklenburg County. She was born to John and Ada C. Klutz. She lived in Winston-Salem for over 60 years. Kinard was the widow of Al C. Kinard, a former Winston-Salem police officer. She was a loving wife, mother and a faithful friend to all who knew her. Kinard joined Hanes Memorial C.M.E. Church shortly after arriving in Winston-Salem. She was a member of the Missionary Society and served her church and attended regularly as long as her health permitted. She was also a member of the Skyland Park Community Club. Kinard was loyal and faithful in service to her friends and anyone in need. If anyone was sick, she was persistent in calling to inquire of that person's welfare and to wish him or her well.

Kinard is survived by a daughter, Carlita Kinard Shepard and a son-in-law, Lorenzo B. Shephard of Hampstead, N.C.; a sister, Eldora K. Robinson of Staten Island, N.Y.; two brothers, Warren (Angeline) Klutz and Alonzo (Margaret) Klutz, both of Kannapolis, N.C.; a brother-in-law, Clarence Kinard of Winston-Salem; several nieces and nephews; plus many other relatives and friends.

Services were held Saturday at Hanes Memorial C.M.E. Church, with the Rev. Lloyd L. Watkins officiating.

Burial followed in Evergreen Cemetery.

Russell Funeral Directors handled arrangements.

Questions & Answers on recovering from grief

Q. A few weeks before my dad died, I saw some very hurtful things to him. I wish I could take them back and tell him how much I love him.

A. These circumstances produce a lot of guilt and anger. Death has robbed us of a form of completion with our parent.

Have a conversation with your dad now. Say to him all the things you feel you missed saying. This is a healing way to complete issues with parents. You can now go forward to complete your grief over the loss of this important person in your life.

Questions asked during bereavement classes are answered by the editor of AFTERLOSS. For a free copy of one of our new little booklets, Grief is a Process, Not an Event or "I Never Know What To Say!" please call or stop by.
