Hanes Hosiery Win the 14th St Invitational

The Hanes Hosiery 10-12 All-Star team behind the superb play of Landon Moore, Jeff Owen, Ashanti McDowell, Tony Surlles, and Jonathon Webb defeated the tournament host 14th Street Recreation Center in consecutive games to win the 1993 14th Street Invitational 10-12 year-old Basketball Tournament.

Landon Moore, of Hanes Hosiery was named the tournaments most valuable player and had 31 assists for the tournament, while Hanes power forwards, Jeff Owen had 45 points and Ashanti McDowell hit 44 in the tournament.

Other Hanes standouts include Tony Surlles with 19 points, and Jonothon Webb had 27.

The defense was led by Matt Carter, Tommy McGuinn and Bradley Tuttle. Owen and McDowell controlled the boards with 34 rebounds between the two.

Hanes was coached by Art Blevins and Gary Lash.

14th Street was led by Danny Gathings who had 35 points for the tournament, Mike Bowman with 19, Donnell Hairston with 18, Mike King with 14, and Charles Westmore hitting 12.

14th Street was coached by Brian Leak who was also the tournament director.

The Hanes Hosiery All-Stars won in the first round with a high-scoring offense 83-57, and knocked out 14th Street 82-60 to win the championship.

"I am very proud of four of my All-Star players: Trey Williams, Derek Chisolm, Carter Williams and KC Dobbins who all have made AAU teams and have helped lead their AAU teams to the State Finals. They missed the 14th Street Tournament due to AAU Games. I am very proud of all four young men," Director Art Blevins.

Hanes Hosiery Closes Out Season

The Hanes Hosiery Recreation Center under the direction of Art Blevins and his staff Gary Lash and Queen Wright finished up their winter basketball program.

According to Blevins it was a very successful season in which 141 kids played basketball in four intramural leagues at the Hosiery.

There was a league for 6-9 year-olds, and leagues for 13-15 and 16-18 year-olds.

Regular season games began in January and ran through March with tournament games and championships for each league.

Then All-Star teams were picked to play in different tournament through-out the city.

Hanes Hosiery All-Star teams won three tournaments in post-season play.

Hanes is also very proud of the following young men who played this year at the Hosiery, that were selected to AAU teams...Carter Williams, Trey Williams, and Derek Chisolm made the Carolina Express AAU team and KC Dobbins, Landon Moore and Ashanti McDowell made the Winston Lake AAU Teams.

Hanes Hosiery Director Art Blevins welcomes all kids out next year for another super year, sing-ups will begin in November.
