Larry Little Named Coach at NCCU

Chancellor Julius Chambers officially named former Miami Dolphins All-pro lineman Larry Little as the 16th head coach in North Carolina Central University history at the Leroy T. Walker Physical Education Complex last week.

Little, a 14-year NFL veteran, returns to the collegiate ranks after serving a one-year stint as the head coach in the inaugural season of the now defunct Ohio Glory of the World League of American Football in 1992. Before that he served as the head coach at Division I-AA Bethune-Cookman College in Daytona Beach, Fla for nine seasons, leading his alma mater to two Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference championships in 1984 and 1988.

Little began his NFL career as a free-agent with the San Diego Chargers for two seasons. He was later traded to the Miami Dolphins in 1969. He retired from the NFL in 1980, but not before compiling some of the most impressive statistics and awards ever bestowed upon an offensive lineman.

The ten-year Dolphin captain was selected as the NFL Player Representative of the Year in 1979. Little was also chosen as the AFC Representative of the Year in 1971, 1972, and 1973.

The durable offensive lineman played in 14 NFL seasons. He started in 175 of the 198 games he played. He made the Pro-Bowl team five straight seasons.

The three-year Hall of Fame Finalist (1986, 1987, 1988) will officially become inducted to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in July. In 1978 he was inducted into the Florida Sports Writers' Hall of Fame. In 1984, he led Bethune-Cookman to a first ever MEAC championship and was chosen as the MEAC Coach of the Year, Washington D.C. Pigskin Club and Atlanta's 100% Wrong Club Coach of the Year.
