

Deltas Sponsor Baby Shower for Expecting Mothers

The Physical and Mental Health Committee of the Winston-Salem Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc., Gamma Phi of Winston-Salem State University, and Pi Omicron of Wake Forest University recently sponsored a baby shower for expecting mothers enrolled at Independence High School.

The shower was held on the school's campus with six mothers in attendance. The gifts presented by the sorors included blankets, diapers, sleepers and toiletries.

The project is one of the annual joint projects sponsored by the three chapters of Delta Sigma Theta.

Elizabeth Newton is the chairperson of the Physical and Mental Health Committee. Committee members are Gasometha Foster, Carol Lewis, Patsy Murrill, Rosalind Redd and Deborah Wilson. Louise Smith is president of the Winston-Salem Alumnae Chapter.

American Red Cross Offers Free Swimming Lessons

The American Red Cross, in cooperation with Winston-Salem/Forsyth County, Mocksville-Davie County, Stokes County, and Yadkin County area pools, will be offering free swimming lessons during the fifth annual Learn-to-Swim program and offering infant and child water safety classes through the second annual "Merbabes" program.

Learn-to-Swim, beginning in June, targets non-swimmers and introduces basic swimming skills and water safety awareness to youth, age 6 and older, and adults. To enroll, call the Northwest North Carolina chapter, 724-0511, for a registration form, which must be completed and returned by May 27.

"Merbabes," to be taught June 19, teaches basic water safety skills to parents and children from the ages 6 months to 5 years. To enroll, call the Northwest North Carolina Chapter at 724-0511 for a registration form.

Summer Art Camps for Children Offered at Sawtooth

Summer art camps for children at Winston-Salem's Sawtooth Center for Visual Art will begin June 9 and run for 10 weeks through Aug. 13. Each class will meet for one week, Monday through Friday, to accommodate busy summer schedules and vacation plans. Each session is open to children aged 4 to 13 with age-appropriate class divisions. The fee for each week is $80. The week of July 6-9 is $64, due to the Fourth of July holiday. Discounts are available for children who sign up with a friend or sibling or register for more than one week. Some scholarships are available. Pre-registration is required for all classes. Some sessions are already full for younger children, and names are being taken for waiting lists. For further information, call the Sawtooth Center office at (919) 723-7395 weekdays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Each week-long class is based on a different theme, encouraging children to create bridges between the visual arts and everyday life. Students will explore a variety of subjects from the perspective of different mediums. Each session will include drawing and painting fundamentals.

Other possible projects will involve printmaking, collage, fiber, photos and photograms, clay, and other three-dimensional media. Projects will differ each week.

The N.C. Newspaper in Education (NIE) Foundation and State Department of Public Instruction are planning programs for you!

Join the more than 3000 teachers who have attended N.C. Newspaper in Education summer workshops over the last ten years! The N.C. NIE Foundation and State Department of Public Instruction are still planning programs for you.

Find out how newspapers can be used to fit your classroom needs. In summer workshops NIE Managers from the state's newspapers present various approaches for using newspapers as a teaching tool. You, the teachers, receive a guide that covers newspapering, social studies, communication skills, math, health, science, cultural arts, and vocational education. You earn one unit of credit for attending the 10-hour workshop. Registration is limited. Make plans now to attend.

To register, send the $15 registration fee and the coupon below to N.C. NIE Foundation. If you have questions about any workshop, call Rhylee Elmore at (919) 787-5181. NIE Instructors will conduct the workshops.
