

Area Weddings and Engagements

MCLENDON-BROWN

Angela Elaine McLendon and Walter James Brown Jr. were married June 5 in a 3 p.m. ceremony at Shiloh Baptist Church. The Rev. Paul A. Lowe Jr. officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Marjorie Evans. Her father and stepmother are Albert and Earline Parmon.

The groom is the son of Cynthia and Walter Brown Sr.

The bride was given in marriage by Albert Parmon, her father.

The maid of honor was Marcellus Liles.

Bridesmaids were Tracy Ingram, the bride's sister, and Dene-sha Bell, both of Winston-Salem; Vonda Hill of Hampton, Va.; and Jacqueline Adams and Mava Adams, the groom's cousins, both of Leland, N.C.

The best man was Timothy Brown of Riegelwood, N.C., the groom's brother.

Ushers were Willie McLendon of Winston-Salem, the bride's brother; Cedric Blanks, Kevin Perkins and Travis Williams, all of Riegelwood, and Teddy Taylor of Decatur, Ga., all cousins of the groom.

The bride is a graduate of Parkland High School. She served in the

Angela McLendon Brown

United States Air Force at Osan Air Base in Korea.

The groom attended North Carolina A&T State University and Devry School of Technology in Decatur, Ga. He is presently enlisted in the U.S. Air Force.

The couple will live in New Jersey.

SMITH-DOYLE

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert A. Smith of Sicklerville, N.J. announce the engagement of their daughter, Stephanie Laverne Smith, M.D., to Alvin Elvert Doyle Jr., son of Shirley Doyle Pope of Lake Havasu, Ariz. and Alvin E. Doyle Sr. of Long Island, N.Y.

Stephanie is the granddaughter of the late Dr. Francis L. Atkins, president emeritus of Winston-Salem State University, and Martha Spencer Atkins, who retired after a career as professor of music instruction.

She is a 1989 graduate of Wake Forest University. She received her medical degree from the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey and will begin a residency in pathology at Thomas Jefferson University Hospital in Philadelphia in July.

The couple's wedding is planned for this Saturday.

Stephanie Smith and Alvin Doyle Jr.

HARWOOD-WOOD

The Rev. David F. and Mrs. Phyllis D. Harwood of Westfield, N.J. announce the engagement of their daughter, Karey Alison Harwood, to Wesley Swain Wood, son of Dr. Frank B. and Mayor Martha S. Wood.

Rev. Harwood, assisted by Dr. Wood, will officiate the wedding, which will take place on Aug. 7 at First United Methodist Church in Westfield, where Harwood serves as senior minister.

Karey is a research assistant in Medical Ethics and Health Policy for the American Medical Association in Chicago. She graduated from Yale University in New Haven, Conn. in 1992, with an honors degree in English.

Wesley is a legal assistant for the law firm of Bell, Boyd and Lloyd in Chicago. He graduated magna cum laude in 1992 from Georgetown University in Washington with a degree in government and was inducted into Phi Beta Kappa.

United States Military Officer Gets Promotion

Second Lt. Perry Josef Seawright was promoted to captain on May 10.

Seawright was pinned by his wife, Sheron, and his Lt. Colonel Moore, while his parents and other staff and superior officers looked on.

A reception was held after the ceremony.

He is a native of Davie County and the son of Barbara and Perry Seawright.

He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Parks of Mocksville and Mr. and Mrs. Willie T. Allen of Winston-Salem.

Seawright and his wife are stationed in Fort Eustio, Va.

Perry Josef Seawright

CUJ to Show Support for Womble

The Citizens United for Justice is sponsoring a Support Rally for its volunteers and Alderman Larry Womble this Saturday at 12 p.m. The rally will amass at Emmanuel Baptist Church on Shalimar Drive. The purpose of the rally is to gather members of the community who support the continuing efforts to fight injustice and violence in Winston-Salem. Rally sponsors will call for a halt to racism, violence, senseless killings, joblessness, poverty, drugs, police brutality and religious, ethnic and political intolerance.

The rally will endeavor to facilitate tolerance and harmony in our community through peace and non-violence. For more information, contact Emmanuel Baptist Church at 788-7023.

Seniors' Club Makes Trip to Charlotte

The North Winston Senior Citizens Club traveled to Charlotte on May 25 to participate in the 32nd anniversary of the Nimble Fingers Club at the Bethlehem Community Center Senior Citizens Club.

Catherine Chapman is the director of the club. H. Douglas Boyd is the executive director.

Seniors from other areas of North Carolina were represented. There is also an active men's senior citizens club.

Katherine Melton led devotion. Boyd delivered the welcome. Veniece Davis shared memories of the club. Carolyn Redfern sang "Blessed Assurance." Mallie Stroud introduced the speaker. Redfern then sang "Precious Lord Take My Hand."

The Rev. Clinton Caesar has been an honorary member of the club for two years. He is the pastor of Shiloh Institutional Baptist Church in Charlotte. His message was "He's Worthy to be Praised."

After the message, the audience sang "He's Worthy to be Praised."

Chapman delivered remarks and introduced the groups who were present. Members of the club introduced their officers.

The club meets weekly and has 23 members. The purpose of the club is to have Bible study, take leadership trips, and spread love to one another.

Caesar led the benediction and grace. A dinner followed the program.

Members of the North Winston Senior Citizens Club who attended were Iola Hopkins, Geneva Covington and her daughter and granddaughter, Alma Jean Ellis, Willie Mae McArthur, Doris Crosby, and Katie Riley, club advisor.

Happy Hill Community Holds Events

The Happy Hill Gardens volunteer staff will have a talent show Friday. Contestants of all ages will be residents from the Happy Hill Gardens community. The public is invited. The talent show will begin at 8 p.m. The Happy Hill Gardens volunteer staff will have a community picnic day Saturday. Entertainment from various groups and churches will join the celebration. Power 97's Tim Jackson will be master of ceremony. This event will take place at the Happy Hill Gardens recreational park from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Donations for either event can be sent to 1206 Free St. For further information call 727-8119.

Casa Guadalupe Gets Challenge Grant

Casa Guadalupe of Catholic Social Services in Winston-Salem has received a $10,000 challenge grant from the Kathleen Price and Joseph M. Bryan Family Foundation of Greensboro.

In order to receive the grant funds, Casa Guadalupe must raise an additional $20,000 in new pledges before May of 1994. The grant and additional pledges will be used to hire a full-time program manager for the coming year. With this staff increase, Casa can be open more hours and offer more programs to the Hispanic community. Casa Guadalupe provides translation services, immigration counseling, job referrals, and other community referral services to Hispanics and others in the Triad and surrounding counties. Most of these services are provided through volunteers. For more information or to make a contribution to help meet the Bryan grant challenge, contact Casa Guadalupe at 727-4745.

Shiloh to Begin Vacation Bible School

Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church will hold Vacation Bible School this Monday through Friday, with sessions from 6:30-8:30 p.m. nightly. The theme is "Let's go with Jesus."

Activities and classes are planned for parents and children. The adult topic will be "Ordinary People Can Do the Extra-ordinary." The motto is "Pastor and people: one in the spirit, searching for a more excellent way."

Sallie Brown is the director.

Carolyn A. Rice is the assistant director. Deacon Coker Stewart is the general superintendent. The Rev. Paul A. Lowe Jr. is pastor.

For information call 724-9263 or 788-8093.

MAKE A DIFFERENCE

If you're looking for a way to make a difference, then consider becoming a Professional Parent. The Professional Parenting Program is looking for couples or single adults who like kids, and are willing to take a needy child into their home for that important second chance.

As Professional Parents you'll receive top-notch training, 24-hour staff support, and $550 a month. And you'll have the satisfaction of knowing you've given a child a second chance.

Professional Parenting

Call Dianne at 919-595-2348
between 9 - 5, Monday through Friday

FORSYTH
TECHNICAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE

makes a difference!

So Can You!

Consider a Career in Engineering Technologies...

Automotive Skills...

or Building Trades.

Forsyth Tech is accepting applications now for fall quarter in these and other programs.

There are 19 associate degree programs in Business Technologies, College Transfer and Engineering Technologies.

Eleven vocational diploma programs are available for training in such skills as Diesel Maintenance, Printing, Plumbing and Welding.

We've also added more short-term certificate programs from Clerical Processing to Medical Record Coding; from Microcomputing to Real Estate Appraisal.

Contact Forsyth Tech NOW and discover the career opportunities we have waiting for you. Enroll now while space is still available in your choice.

Tuition

Part-time
$13.25 per credit hour

Full-time
$185.50 per quarter

Subject to change without notice.

Call 723-0371, ext. 253 or 256, or stop by the Admissions Office

Forsyth Technical Community College
2100 Silas Creek Parkway
Winston-Salem, NC 27103

Make a difference today!