This activity will serve as a homecoming and as a send-off project. Everyone is urged and invited to attend. There will be activities and fun for the entire family.

There will be track meets for all ages. This meet will also honor a Tri-City athlete, Danita Roseboro, who recently graduated from East Carolina University in Greenville and set two school sprint records.

The event will begin at 10 a.m. Food and drinks will be available.

▲ Little Creek League

The Little Creek 13- to 17-year-old Junior Baseball League defeated Martin Luther King Recreation Center 12-11 in a three-inning game.

Pitching for Little Creek was Scott Bethuae, who came in during the second inning to stop Martin Luther King from scoring.

Bethuae struck-out R. McKay with the bases loaded, then T. Dillard and L. Davis for the win.

▲ MLK Beats Sims

Martin Luther King was victorious over William Sims midget baseball team, with a score of 7-1.

The game lasted only 2-1/2 innings due to a late start.

For the home team (MLK), Tyuane Foy, the starting pitcher, struck out eight batters. Foy also hit two doubles, scored one run and had two RBIs.

Marcus Staley and Dennis Cunningham scored two runs each; Shelton Davis and Ronald Bryant crossed home plate once each for a total of seven runs for MLK.

▲ Hosiery Action

Amick Horn hurled a one-hitter through five innings, striking out 10 batters, to lead the Hosiery Hitmen to a 10-3 victory over Rupert Bell.

The Hosiery had a balanced hitting attack with Horn, Eddy Forrest, James Wright, and Quincy Jordan leading the way.

Wright had a single and a double then drove in two runs; Forrest drove in three runs with a bases-loaded double.

Other Hosiery standouts were: Dee Howell, Timmy Beal, Roy Davis, Akili Marshall, Jeremiah Hawks, Moochie Ebert, Matt Moore and Tony Surles.

The 10- to 12-year-old Hitmen still remain undefeated. They are coached by Art Blevins and Vincent Brown.

The Hosiery 13- to 16-year-old Hitmen, behind the pitching of Thomas Tuttle, creamed the Boy's Club 13-1.

Tuttle struck out 11 Boy's Club batters on his way to his second win of the season on the mound.

Hoisery Hot Hoops Summer League Action

In the 11- to 14-year-old league, the Suns defeated the Bulls 48-41, as Shaun Williford poured in 19 points, and Jake Guarantano and Josh Bailey scored easily in the paint to combine for 25 more points.

Andrew Barr added four additional points for the suns.

The Bulls stayed close throughout the game, as Allen Hall and Tony Surles scored 12 points each. The Bulls also received good games from Curtis-Cheeks, Jasper-Brown, Damien Hayes and Joel Justice.

Also playing in the 11- to 14-year-old league, the Sonics overpowered the Hornets 41-39 in a close game.

Corey Burchette scored 12 points and led the rebounding, while Kevin McLean and Derek Chisolm led the defense to hold the Sonics score-over the Hornets by two points in a thriller game.

Art Brown and Burchette were too much inside for the Hornets, as the Sonics controlled the boards.

The Hornets were led by Jonothon Webb, who busted the nets for 16 points on smooth moves to the basket.

Other Hornets who added to the win were: Jordan Lash, Moe Rogers, Cory Caldwell and Dwayne Hairston.

In a battle of the top two teams in the Hanes Hosiery "Hot Hoops," the Celtics and Lakers went at it head-to-head in a classic thriller, with the Celtics coming back with less than 20 seconds remaining in the game to win by one point, 59-58.

The Lakers led throughout the game with the hot shooting by Teddy Fant and the rebounding of Kevin Wilson, who also blocked six Celtic shots. Fant had 17 points; Ryan Otati hit 12; and Carl Potters had seven points.

But the Celtics stormed back, as Rico Burton, who finished the game with 30 points, took over the floor going inside, along with his teammate, power forward Kendro Pollard, who had 18 dominating in the lane as the game went along.

Tim Penn and Mario Pitts also turned in good performances for the unbeaten Celtics.

The Celtics and Lakers will receive first-round Byes, as the tournament starts next week.
