NOTES & BRIEFS

Women's Auxiliary Names New President

Mary J. Crank has been named the new president of the Woman's Auxiliary of the High Point Educational and Missionary Baptist Association.

Crank is the wife of William Crank. She is an 11th-grade teacher at West Forsyth High School, where she is chairman of the English department. She attended the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County schools. She received an undergraduate degree from North Carolina A&T State University and a master's degree from Appalachian State University.

Crank has also taught in Wilkesboro. She was voted Teacher of the Year in 1988.

Crank is a member of New Jerusalem Baptist Church, where she is involved in a number of auxiliaries. She is also a former organist for the Sunday choir and senior choir.

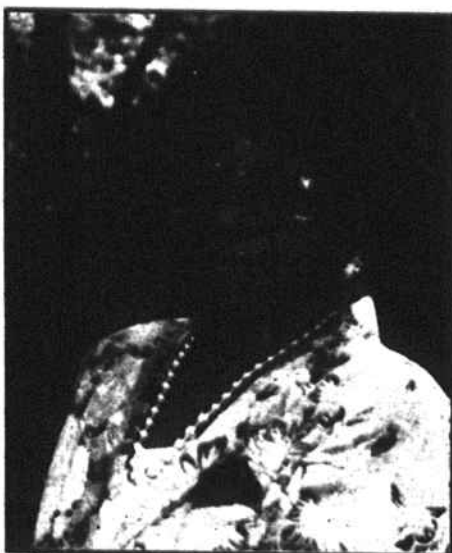

Crank has been a member of the woman's auxiliary for over 15 years.

▲ Woman Honored

Annie M. Lewis was recently honored for 35 years of mission work and 12 years as president of the Woman's Auxiliary of the High Point Educational and Missionary Baptist Association at a pre-convention fellowship banquet at the Howard Johnson Plaza Hotel in Greensboro.

More than 200 family members and friends gathered to honor Lewis' tenure as president.

Priscilla Brodie, executive secretary-treasurer of the Woman's

Annie M. Lewis

Baptist Home and Foreign Mission was the keynote speaker.

Lewis is the widow of the late Rev. James R. Lewis Sr. and a member of Morning Star Baptist Church.

During Lewis' administration, the missionary auxiliary grew. Programs for scholarships, special benevolent funds, a conventional choir, a ministers' wives and widows fellowship and other projects were initiated.

Mary J. Crank succeeds Lewis as president of the auxiliary.
