

Baseball Championship Tourney Held

The Hanes Hosiery 16-and-under baseball squad captured the 1993 City Championship last week by edging Rupert Bell Recreation Center 6-5 in an action-packed game.

Fans were on the edge of their seats in the top of the last inning with the Hosiery Hitmen up by one run and a score of 6-5, when there were two outs and Rupert Bell had the bases loaded, needing only a single run to tie the game.

But the Hitmen's pitcher Thomas Tuttle was up for the challenge, as he threw a chance pitch striking out the Bell batter on a curve.

According to Hosiery coach Art Blevins, the Hitmen won the championship in one of the best games of the summer.

Tuttle, Aaron King, Carl Potter and Derek Spencer led the Hosiery's hitting, while Rodney Monor, Antwan Leak and Wille Gore led Rupert Bell.

The Hosiery 13-and-under Hitmen walloped Little Creek 16-5 to capture the City Championship.

Tim Penn hit a grand-slam homerun in the bottom of the third inning to break open a tight game and spark the Hosiery to a 16-5 victory over Little Creek. The game was tied at 5-5 when Penn came up to bat with the bases loaded and crushed one deep into centerfield for a grand slam.

The Hitmen then went on a hitting barge against the Little Creek pitcher, with Penn, James Wright, Amick Horn, Chris Blackwell, Matt Moore and Eddy Forest pounding the ball for extra base hits.

Little Creek was led by Scott Bethune, Keith Hassell and Chris Green.

Penn was the winning pitcher for the Hitmen and also threw three no-hitters this season.

Late Night Basketball Playoffs Continue

Eleventh Street was led by Julius Minor with 13 points and Mark McMillian, 12.

Aug. 11 was the lucky number for 11th Street, as they won their first championship in three tries
