

Members of the Casey family held their reunion recently in Winston-Salem.

Casey Family Holds 21st Family Reunion

The 21st Casey family reunion was held in Winston-Salem July 31 through Aug. 1. Relatives traveled from Maryland, Alabama, Michigan, Georgia, Washington, D.C., Florida, Ohio and North Carolina.

Activities included a tour of Stroh's Brewery, dinner at the home of Martha and John Evans, a picnic and business meeting at Winston Lake Park, worship at Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church, and a banquet at the Marquee hotel.

Family members who received special recognition included: Lyndon Casey and Chester Mebane as the oldest present; Cymone James as the youngest present; Maurice and Karen Casey as newlyweds; Phyllis and Thomas Bush III as traveling the farthest; Verlin Casey, Alexander Smith and Creighton Casey as recent graduates; and Lyndon Casey for his hospitality and leadership.

Sylvia Casey of Charlotte was the first to answer a biblical puzzle. Shirley Wheeler of Michigan was the runner-up. Fred and Carolyn Casey's descendants brought the most family members with them.

Howard Ward was the photographer for the family portrait.

THE ONCE-OVER VS. THE OVER-AND-OVER.

Tired of going over and over your home, remodeling with layers of paint, replacing rusty gutters and scraping rotting shutters? There's a better way—a long-term low-maintenance way to put an end to the over-and-over once and for all: remodel your home's exterior with Reynolds building products. Start with vinyl or aluminum siding, finish with shutters, gutters, downspouts and trim. Reynolds remodeling products offer:

- Long-term low maintenance.
  - Optional energy saving features and accessories available with windows and siding.
  - A wide variety of styles and patterns.
  - No peeling, flaking or red-rusting.
- Ask your dealer about Reynolds American Classic® siding and accessories. Then give your home a beautiful once-over made to last.

Ask your Reynolds dealer for a copy of the Reynolds limited warranty that covers the products you are considering.
