

Pictured (left to right) Yvonne Jefferson, Shirley Allen, Tammy Wilson, Virgie Hubbard, Melissa Springs, Tracy Young, Crystal Saunders, Javon Oakes, Debbie Roebuck, and instructor Jeanette Millner.

Recognition Ceremony Held At Happy Hills Resource Center

On Monday, Feb. 21st, the Forsyth Tech Adult Basic Skills at Happy Hills Gardens Resource Center held a recognition ceremony for the adult students, who are working on earning GEDs or improving their basic reading and math skills.

Paula McCoy, the Adult Basic Skills Coordinator, presented certificates to nine of the eighteen students honoring them for progress.

attendance and graduation.

The class was started by the "Better You. Better Me" program, a resident managed program designed to assist Happy Hills Gardens residents improve their neighborhood and lives.

Resident, Yvonne Jefferson. manages the program which arranges for childcare for the students. Students. Virgie Hubbard.

Melissa Springs, Crystal Sanders. and Tammy Wilson read selections from their class work.

Jeanette Millner, the FTCC instructor, was the mistress of ceremonies.

Dr. Karl Menefee, the housing manager for Happy Hills Gardens Community, was the guest speaker. The Rev. Preston Mack gave the series of workshops. She encouraged more than thirty teen parents and their families to "create their own future." Huntley, walked them through the process of setting goals (short, medium and long term). The importance of practicing positive affirmations was also stressed.

Consumer Involvement Office Kicks Off Series Of Self-Help Workshops

Huntley, expressed the signifi-

Deloris R. Huntley, of IMANI cance of using visualization to see has made a commitment to encours Communications was recently the the out come of their goals and told keynote speaker at the kick-off for them to "never led anyone turn them Personnel of C.I.O. believes that the Consumer Involvement Office around." She said "it was time for every consumer is endowed with them to look within themselves and decide they are in charge of their destiny, not the government. mother, father or anyone else, they are in charge." She told them they "have the power within, to live up to their fullest expectations and create their won future."

Consumer Involvement Office,

age the dreams of their consumers. and has a right to expect their dreams to come true. With this in mind they are offering a series of workshops called "The Courage To Move," every fourth Tuesday, at the Consumer Involvement Office. 1225 E. 5th Street. For more information call Lee Faye Mack at 723-

Brown and Hatton Take First Place

At last . . . her it is !!! Official results of the recent Grade "A" Bridge Tournament of the weekend of Feb. 11-13, sponsored by the Triad Bridge Unit reached me this past Monday. Local winners included the following:

- Stratified Open Pairs/Flight ston-Salem. Whomp!! There it

First Place - Sandra Brown and Lessie Hatton

Friday, Feb. 11 — 10 p.m. — Annual Memorial Open Pairs (Stratified)

Flight "B" - First Place -Pauline Caldwell and Eunice D. Moore of Norfolk, Va. Third Place — Olivia B. Thompkins and Renita T. Segers

Saturday, Feb. 12 - 9 a.m. - Early Bird Open Pairs

Flight "A" - First Place -Reginald McCauley and Inez Geralds

Flight "B" - First Place -Olivia Thompkins and Renita

Fourth Place - Pauline Caldwell and Sandra Brown Sunday, Feb. 13 - Swiss

Teams 1/2 Place Tie - Sandra Brown, Lessie Hatton, Pauline Caldwell and Elizabeth Lewis

Explanatory note: Flight "A" designated to group of players holding master points in the ligher bracket. Flight "B" designated the group of players holding master points in the next lower bracket. Flights are determined by the number of participants and the range of master point holdings.

Congratulations to the winners! Thanks to all players who supported this effort. In spite of the snow and ice, players came from Chester, S.C., Brooklyn, Virginia Beach, Orange Park, Fla., Wilmington, Del., Chesapeake, Va., Norfolk, Atlanta, Charlotte, Henderson, Durham, Mebane, Friday, Feb. 11 - 6:30 p.m. Burlington, Greensboro and Win-

> Winners Last Week Monday, Feb. 21-2 p.m. at Carl H. Russell Recreation Center Grade "C" Tournament (8 tables) - Charles W. Gadson - Director

Overall Winners: First Place - Inez Geralds and Renita T. Segers

Second Place - Ruth Washington and Billie Matthews

Third Place - Harriet Smith and Imogene Matthews

Fourth Place - Andrew

Monday games. Refreshments were served, chaired by Elizabeth Lewis and Geneva Hill. The Monday games are co-sponsored by the Kings and Queens Duplicated Bridge Club and the Winston-Salem Duplicated Bridge Club. Thanks to those who have supported these games. It is our hope that the involvement in these games will continue to grow, numerically and competitively . . . and otherwise.

Other games scheduled normally for the week were canceled. in support of the CIAA Basketball Tournament, hosted by Winston-Salem. Was the sandwich good? The sandwich, if you did not comprehend, was the "Super Bowl XXVII" and the "CIAA Basketball Tournament" surrounding the Grade "A" Bridge Tournament.

BRIDGE NEWS

Wilkes and Frances Coble

Flight "B" Winners: First Place - Harriet Smith and Imogene Joyner

Second Place - Rudolph Boone and Sarah Boone

Third Place - Waldo Lester and Marjorie Lester

The Grade "C" Tournament was a celebration of the 4th Anniversary of the

Any part that you tasted, we hope that it will be a lasting good taste.

Be ye reminded of the next big event! March 10-13 will be the weekend of the Cherry Blossom Grade "A" Tournament in Washington, D.C., sponsored by the Washington Bridge Unit. Make your plans to attend in advance!

WFU To Host Anthropology Exhibit is the title of a new textile exhibit s in conjunction with their 1994 opening Feb. 22 at Wake Forest University's Museum of Anthropol-

The exhibit explores the universality of producing, giving, and exchanging cloth. Textiles from world cultures such as the Mae Enga of Papua. Cuna Indians of Panama. Hmong of Southeast Asia. Navajo of the American Southeast. Kuba or Zaire and others address the symbolic significance of giving and receiving.

In addition to this special exhibit. several of the Museum's permanent exhibits have expanded to examine the theme. The image of Ixchel. Maya goddess of childbirth and weaving, will guide visitors to the permanent exhibits. Precolumbian spinning and weavings implements, on loan from the Duke University Museum of Art, will also be on display.

The exhibit was planned in connection with the "500 Mile Fiber Arts Exhibit", organized by the Knitting Guild of America and the

"A Common Thread: the Gift" Sewing and Fine Needlework Guild annual meeting. The purpose of the "500 Mile Exhibit" is to provide opportunities for people traveling to the convention site in Gatinburg, Tenn., to view textiles from diverse cultural traditions and historical periods in a four-state area. The Museum of Anthropology is one of 18 museum to participate in this

> "A Common Thread" will be at the Museum until Aug. 12. A lecture series exploring various aspects of weaving will take place in April.

On April 8, Dr. Elizabeth Brumfiel of ALbion College will speak on women's participation in textile production in the Aztec Empire. The lecture is co-sponsored with Wake Forest University;s

Women Studies Program. A recep-

On April 19, Dr. Nancy Kelker, Visiting Assistant Professor of Art, Wake Forest University, will present a talk entitled, "The Cuna Mola: Origins and Adaptation."

tion will follow,

This lecture examines the sources of mola designs. The Cuna Indians of Panama and Columbia are know for their blouses or "molas."

On April 27, Dr. Sarah Schmidt will present a lecture entitle, "The Tallit and Kippah: Jewish Gifts of Thread." Schmidt, who curated, "A Common Thread" will discuss the origin, significance, and customs surrounding the making and wear-- ing of the Jewish prayer shawl (tallit) and skullcap (kippah). The issue of Jewish identification and symbolism will be explored.

All lectures are in the Museum, classroom and start at 7:30 p.m.

"Daughter of Ixchel: Maya Thread of Change" is the title of the April 14 Brown Bag Lunchtime presentation. There will be a short discussion following the showing of the video, which starts at 12:30 p.m.

The Museum of Anthropology, located behind the track stadium on the Wake Forest University campus, is open Tuesday through Saturday, 10 a.m. — 4:30 p.m. For more information, call 759-5282.

FOR "NO-STITCH" CATARACT SURGERY TRUST YOUR EYES TO EXPERIENCE.

I always tell people how fast and easy my 'No-stitch' cataract surgery was by Dr. Epes at Southeastern Eye Center. Why the next day I could see everything very very good. Don't be afraid to have it done, just go to Southeastern."

Hennie Carson 93 Years Young Greensboro, NC

Trust Your Eyes To Experience.

Southeastern Eye Center.

Central Carolina Surgical Eye Associates, P.A. / 3312 Battleground Ave., Greensboro, NC 27410 Medicare Assignment Accepted / 42 Regional Offices / For the office nearest you call 1-800-632-0428 C. Richard Tpes. MD John D, Matthews, MD Donald J. Bergin, MD Marc A. Ralston, MD Karl G. Stonecipher, MD John A. McCrary, III, MD Leonard A. Rappaport, MD John T. Harriott, MD

The Urban League is accepting nominations until MARCH 10 for their annual Achievement, Corporate Leadership and Community Service Awards

ACHIEVEMENT AWARD CRITERIA: Must have come through obstacles, achieved one's field of endeavor and shown tangible evidence of helping the Urban League constituency beyond the realm of immediate responsibility.

CORPORATE LEADERSHIP AWARD: Must have initiated programs to enhance equal opportunities for the Urban League constituency in the areas of education, housing and/or employment.

COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD: Must be recognized by the community-at-large as a visible, positive influence manifested by unselfish commitment to the Urban League constituency.

PLEASE COMPLETE AND RETURN THIS FORM FOR EACH NOMINATION BY MARCH 10 to:

Winston-Salem Urban League 201 W. Fifth St. Winston-Salem, NC 27101

AWARD CATEGORY:

NAME:

ADDRESS:

PHONE:

PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT:

MARITAL STATUS:

FAMILY:

SIGNIFICANT ACHIEVEMENT:

AFFILIATIONS:

NOMINATED BY:

PHONE:

PLEASE DESCRIBE BELOW HOW THE ABOVE NOMINEE MEETS THE CRITERIA FOR THE SPECIFIC AWARD: