Across the country, Amateur Athletic Unions are fashioning a good ol' boy community basketball network.

In more than a score of states, programs have relied on brothers, cousins, neighbors and a bunch, dramatically recorded its first state titles in the same year.

Mark Twain said, "Few things are harder to put up with than the annoyance of a good example."

The 15-and-under Laker agree.

During the state championships at Carver High, the elder Lakers didn't disappoint anyone.

slew of friends to boost their cousins, neighbors and a slew of friends to boost their rosters.

The Charlotte Royals, the Tennessee Travelers, the Boo Williams All-Stars and the Memphis Bellevue teams, simply to name a few, have prescribed to this philosophy in the past and have all won national titles.

The Winston Lake YMCA has finally paid attention. The Winston Lake Laker 19-and-under squad, coupled with a rejuvenated 15-and-under

They used a powerful inside game and a plethora of scoring to defeat the defending champions Charlotte Royals and the upstart N.C. Select team.

But the younger Lakers were not awed by their elders. They very handily whipped the favored Charlotte Royals and coasted to a lopsided victory over the Durham Eagles in the champion game.
