Church to Conduct Series of Workshops

All the choirs at Union Baptist Church were involved in a week-long music workshop conducted by Minister Daniel Mario Cason II from May 9-13. The workshop culminated with a musical performance on May 14.

Cason is an ordained minister and concert pianist who is also a featured musician an clinician at the Gospel Music Workshop of America, the National Convention of Gospel Choirs and Choruses and the International Worship Congress. He has conducted numerous workshops and seminars throughout America as well as touring in Russia. In February 1993, he performed on many of the "Great Church Organs" of Europe and gave a performance for Pope John Paul II at the Vatican in Rome.

Members who participated were taught, as well as inspired, through Carson's workshop. The Rev. Dwight Bryant, the minister of music at Union Baptist Church, initiated this event three months before to provide his choir participants the musical experience for praise and worship services.

The Union Baptist Congregation also was given highlights of the concert during the 11 a.m. service on May 15.
