

THE VIRGINIA WATERFRONT.

THREE FAMOUS DESTINATIONS

IN ONE LOCATION.

Let's say you've got a week's vacation coming. Let's say you want to do something different every single day. Let's say you don't want to spend most of your precious days driving from one destination to the next. Let's go to The Virginia Waterfront.

Day 1. Let's start your vacation with one of America's favorites:

Virginia Beach offers 28 miles of boating, bathing, and biking down the boardwalk.

Colonial Williamsburg. The homes, the stores, the taverns and the Governor's Palace are exactly the way Thomas Jefferson, Patrick Henry and George Washington left them. Enjoy.

Day 2. Just one hour from Williamsburg is the world's longest beach resort: Virginia Beach. If you're a beach lover, you could spend a month here surfing jet skiing and soaking up rays.

Day 3. But you don't want to miss all the good times in Norfolk. You want to lose yourself in the virtual reality of Nauticus, the amazing new National Maritime Center. You want to gaze with awe at the biggest ships in the world. You want to see the art of the renowned Chrysler Museum. You want to stuff yourself full of fresh seafood at Waterside.

Colonial Williamsburg is as big a blast today as it was in 1776.

Then you'll want to do it all over again.

Day 4. But not until you've spent the day at Busch Gardens Williamsburg.

And you've experienced first hand all the alpine roller coasters, Italian restaurants, German polkas and French pastries the Old Country has to offer.

Day 5. Then you'll be ready to discover the New World: Jamestown, the first permanent English settlement in America. And Yorktown where Washington defeated Cornwallis in the final and decisive battle of the Revolution and set our nation free.

Day 6. Following a refreshing dip into Water Country USA, dive into the aquarium at the Virginia Marine Science

What's new in Norfolk? Nauticus, where any civilian can feel the thrill of victory without the agony of basic training.

Museum in Virginia Beach. Sail through the Mariners' Museum in Newport News. Moonwalk around the Virginia Air and Space Center in Hampton. And tour historic Olde Town in Portsmouth.

Day 7. If you really must go, here's a handy travel tip: stop by the outlet stores in Williamsburg and load up on fashions, furniture, pottery and china at unheard of prices.

Say you don't have seven days? Don't worry. All the great attractions on The Virginia Waterfront are within minutes of each other. Say you've got more than seven days? Don't worry. We've just begun to cover the Waterfront.
