Goler Church Holds Honorees Banquet

Special to the Chronicle

Recognizing the honorees at the Goler Memorial AME Zion Church annual banquet, the Rev. Seth O. Lartey called on them to "help make our community a better place."

"Now that you have been honored and are celebrities, we ask you to join us to help make our community a better place," he said at the conclusion of Sunday night's banquet at the Adams-Mark Hotel. "We ask you to join us to eradicate our community of violence and drugs."

He also said that East Winston is overly populated with ABC stores and that "all Wild Irish Rose billboards are on our side of town."

About 300 people attended the church's second annual honorees banquet, where Wanda Starke of WXII served as mistress of ceremonies.

Nineteen members of the community were honored. They were: Conita Archie-Hunt, the Rev. Ginny Britt, Elsie Burke, Gregory Burrell, J. Frederick Canady, Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Jones, Annie Brown Kennedy, Josephine McCall, Eddie McMillian, Owen Newell, Walter Meshal, Aaron Orr, Benjamin Ruffin, Margie Scarborough, Franklin Stowe, Dorothy Wilkins and Melvin Wilkins and the American Legion Post 220.

The honorees were presented plaques by Peggy Newell. Entertainment was furnished by M. Cornelia Forbes, Melvin Williams, Galvin Crisp and Carole Boston Weatherford.

The banquet journal was dedicated to Mattie Howard, who has been a member of Goler since 1943.

Chavis to Speak at WSSU Wednesday

Ben Chavis

By DAVID L. BELLARD
Chronicle Staff Writer

The Rev. Benjamin Chavis, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, will visit Winston-Salem next week to address the needs of African Americans and the direction of the NAACP under his leadership.

Chavis will speak at the Anderson Center at Winston-Salem State University on Wednesday at 8 p.m. Admission is free.

Bill Tatum, president of the local NAACP, said Chavis will discuss the goals of the NAACP and the new course he has set for the group.

The direction Chavis is steering the nation's oldest civil-rights organization has been questioned because of his recent agreement to work with Nation of Islam leader Louis Farrakhan and after a secret meeting last month in Detroit with communist Angela Davis, black radical Kwame Toure (formerly Stokely Carmichael), rapper Sister Souljah and Kwanzaa creator Maulana Karenga.

Local black leaders previously expressed their support for Chavis' efforts in reaching out to other viable black organizations.

"He's going to talk about his plans for the NAACP, his meeting with other black leaders and show how we're trying to enhance our growth," Tatum said. "It will also be a chance for us to recruit new members."

Bob Vila Paint Tip

Bob Vila

An important first step often overlooked when preparing the exterior of your house before painting, is to give it a good cleaning. Most Sears stores carry power washers. They provide more power than the garden hose, and there is no better way to clean off the dirt and peeling paint. For more hints, check your local TV listings and tune in to Bob Vila's "Home Again" program.
