Third Annual Beaux-Tillion '94 A Big Success

Over 300 people gathered at the Marquee Hotel Ballroom for the third Annual Beaux-Tillion sponsored by St. Peter's World Outreach Center.

This affair, a tribute to young men, met its goal by acknowledging the accomplishments of the young men in school, in church and in the community.

Congressman Melvin "Mel" Watt from the 12th Congressional District was the keynote speaker with special remarks from Pansy Gladen, Forsyth County District Attorney.

Three young men received The R.K. Hash Scholarship Awards. They are: Tjay Duncan, a student at Reynolds High School; Charles Crouch, a student at Mt. Tabor High School and Trasen Scott, a student at North Forsyth High School.

These awards are in the form of saving bonds or financial awards to the schools of their choice and were based on competitive essays written by each Beaux participant.

Over 60 young men and women participated in workshops, seminars, and field trips experiences. Big Brothers, Big Sisters, parents and guardians were involved in the auspicious occasion.

For more information on next year's Beaux-Tillion, please contact the church at 650-0200. All young men between the ages of 9 and 19 years of age may participate.

Youth Day Of Prayer to Be Held

Youth World Day of Prayer will be held at First Baptist Church, 700 Highland Ave., on Sunday, June 5 at 4 p.m. with the Rev. Starling Churn as preacher for the service. Churn is a student in the school of Theology at Virginia Union Seminary at Richmond, Va.

Youth groups in the area have been invited to attend and to participate in the service. Titan Barksdale will serve as worship leaders. A mass choir of youth will provide the music directed by Alfonza Williamson, organist at First Baptist Church. A choir workshop on Saturday Morning, June 4 at 10 a.m. will help prepare the choir for singing at the Sunday Service.

The World Day of Prayer Theme is "The Challenging World of Youth."

The Rev. Wendell Johnson is the pastor.
