Smith's Birthday Celebration Raises Money for "I Have A Dream Foundation"

Dallas, Tx. — Dallas Cowboys all pro running back Emmitt Smith recently celebrated his 25th birthday in style at the Iguana Mirage, one of Dallas' hottest night spots.

The purpose of the event was two-fold. It gave Emmitt the opportunity to bring in his quarter of a century mark with 1,500 celebrity guests, family members, close friends, colleagues and Dallas Cowboys fans. More importantly, Emmitt saw this as a chance to give back to the community which has been very supportive of him throughout his career with the Cowboys. In appreciation of this support, he donated part of the proceeds to the "I Have A Dream Foundation", a national student adoptive program designed to promote higher education and financially assist at risk youth toward achieving that end.

"I've always held in high regard those students that aspire to do their best both academically and morally despite the peer pressures and other social and economical obstacles they may encounter," stated Emmitt Smith.

Smith added, "I related well to these students, because I, too, had to overcome similar experiences as a youth growing up in Florida. But, like students affiliated with the "I Have A Dream Foundation", I had my dream and I held fast to those dreams and today I can attest that dreams do come true."

In addition to proceeds from benefit ticket sales, an auction with numerous autographed items from renowned celebrities and professional athletes, were auctioned off which significantly added to the financial contribution to the foundation.

John Henton, star of the Fox show "Living Single" was master of ceremonies for the evening. A host of other celebrity guests were in attendance. They included nationally acclaimed comedian George Wallace and comedienne A.J. Sanders. Songstress Cece Peniston dazzled the crowd with her latest hits. Dawn Lewis, former star of "A Different World" and "Hangin' With Mr. Cooper", along with Darryl Bell formerly of "A Different World" were also among the special guests.

A number of Emmitt's professional colleagues were on hand to help him celebrate. They included Thurman Thomas (Buffalo Bills), Michael Irvin (Dallas Cowboys), Charles Haley (Dallas Cowboys), Michael Johnson (Olympian), and former Cowboys Tony Dorsett, Everson Walls and Ed "Too Tall" Jones, Ray Crockett (Denver Broncos), and Jamal Mashburn. (Dallas Mavericks) to name a few.
