

Presbyterian Men of Dellabrook Church to Hold Celebration

The Presbyterian Men of Dellabrook Presbyterian Church will celebrate Men's Day on Sunday during the 11 a.m. worship service.

Participants on the program are: Emery L. Rann, speaker; Charles Burns, lay leader and soloist; Spencer Glenn, president and director of men's chorus; Fredrick Terry, children's message and vice president; Keith Byrd, special music; Larry Little, special presentation; and the Rev. Carlton A.G. Eversley, pastor.

Rann is a graduate of Lincoln

University in Oxford, Pa., with a degree in political science. Howard University School of Law. He also enrolled in a Master of Public Affairs program at UNC-G.

Prior to coming to Winston-Salem in 1987 to become director of the Winston-Salem Human Relations Department. Rann held the following positions: Law Clerk with Chambers, Stein, Ferguson & Becton, P.A.; Legislative Aide to Congressman James G. Martin in Washington, D.C.; Law Clerk with the Mecklenburg County Legal Aid Society; Investigative Aide with the Montgomery County Office of Consumer Affairs; Staff Associate/Public Benefits Coordinator for the Central Carolina Legal Service; Senior Representative for the Social Security Advocates; director, Landownership Information Project; Resettlement Program Coordinator for the Lutheran Family Services - Greensboro; and special assistant for Minority Affairs for State of North Carolina.

Rann has a number of professional and civic affiliations. He has received several distinguished honors, including the Reginald H. Smith Community Law Fellow, United Negro College Fund Meritior Service Award and a Governor's Certificate of Service.

Rann is a native of Charlotte. He is married to RaVonda Dalton Rann. They have two children, Eric and Chris. Emery is the son of Dr. Emery L. Rann Jr. and the late Margretha Chambers Rann. He is member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity.

The theme for the Men's Day program is "Boys to Men."

The men will honor James F. Ford, the only living male charter member of Dellabrook Presbyterian Church. He has served the local church, in three leadership positions. At Dellabrook, Ford served as a Deacon, Elder, church treasurer, church school teacher and chaired many committees. He recently retired from his milk distributing business due to illness.

Little will make a presentation to James F. "The Milkman" Ford.

A reception will follow the service. The men will sponsor a "Family Night Cookout" at the church tomorrow at 7 p.m. Young men in the community are particularly invited to both activities. Bryon C. Penn and Fred Terry are co-chairs for the cookout.

One Year with Jesus
How long have I been with Jesus? I'm told that on earth it's one year. All I know, it's been glory and wonder; No heartache, No pain, and No fear! To know that the parting's behind me; Beyond me is unending bliss; Can earth ever offer such promise?; Can time offer blessings like this?

How long have I been here with Jesus?; It seems only moments, that's all!; But I'm sure its been long for my loved ones; Who wept when I answered God's call; Holy Spirit, please come now and comfort; Tell them that it won't be long; Until were together forever; And singing the ransomed's song!
