

Gov. Jim Hunt Names Richard Davis to Public Employee Board

Gov. Jim Hunt has named Richard Davis of Winston to the board of trustees of the Public Employee Deferred Compensation Plan. The seven-member board oversees the deferred compensation plan for state employees, and it advises teachers and state employees on opportunities to invest in deferred funds associated with life insurance, fixed or variable annuities, retirement income and other investments. Davis is owner of Davis Management Services, an accounting and consulting firm in Winston-Salem.

▲ 95% Passes Exam

May graduates of Winston-Salem State University's nursing program posted a 95 percent passing rate on the licensure exam for the quarter ending June 30.

According to the North Carolina Board of Nursing, 38 of the 40 students who took the test over the last three months, had passed it. Dr. Sylvia Flack, WSSU's director of the division of nursing and allied health, said today that by the end of the year a total of 79 graduates will have taken the nursing boards.

WSSU graduates and graduates from around the country were the first to take the National Council Licensure Examination (NCLEX) on a computer, known as computerized adaptive testing. The change from taking the examination manually took effect in April.

▲ Auditions Held

The Little Theatre of Winston-Salem is holding auditions for The Odd Couple on Aug. 9 at 7 p.m.

The two main roles are Oscar Madison, the sloppy sportswriter, and Felix Ungar, his overly neat, compulsive friend. There are roles for four men to play Speed, Murray, Roy and Vinnie, who are Felix and Oscar's poker buddies. There are also roles for two women to play Gwendolyn and Cecily Pigeon - English sisters in their early 30s. The audition will be at the Hanes Community Center, 610 Coliseum Drive in Winston-Salem.

The Odd Couple is by Neil Simon. The Odd Couple had a successful run on Broadway and was made into a movie in 1968. Television followed with a series which ran for eight years.

Directed by Gene Johnson, production dates are September 23-25, 29 - Oct. 2. For more information, call 748-0857.

Aug. 21 Scholarship Game

BRIDGE NEWS

By ROUDOLPH V. BOONE SR

Congratulations to these fine players. Thomas Hunt is #28 on the Top 100 American Bridge Association Player's list. He has 9,334 master points.

ABA Headquarters Building Fund Under the leadership of president Anita Troy and the board of directors, with the concurrence of the membership in session at the 1994 Spring National the American Bridge Association has moved ahead to purchase a national headquarters to be located in Atlanta.

Triad clubs have already made contributions to the fund goal of $150,000. Individuals are urged to make generous contributions.

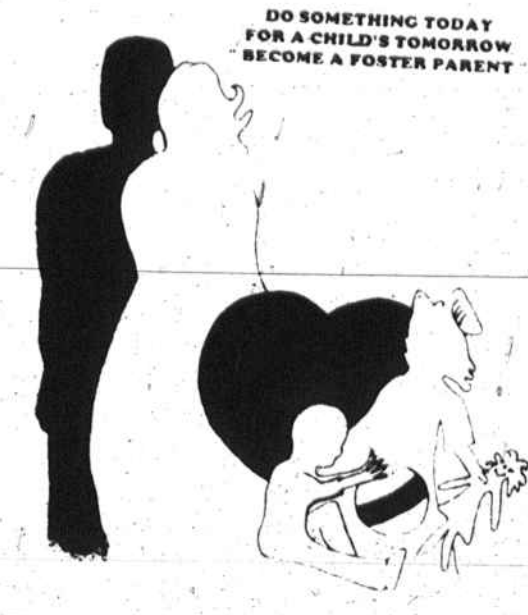

July 15 was the closing date

A scholarship game, scheduled for Sunday, Aug. 21, 1994 at the Dudley Cosmetology Association University, will be co-sponsored by the Winston-Salem Duplicate Bridge Club and the Triad Bridge Unit.

The executive board of the Triad Bridge Unit will meet on the same date. The time will be announced later. All members of the unit are urged to support the game by participating.

Local players are reminded to make early plans to participate in the Tidewater Bridge Unit's Grade "A" Tournament on the weekend of Sept. 16-18 at Virginia Beach, Va. This is one of the top events in the entire association! You will not want to miss it!
