St. Aug Joins USA/

The recent 5th Pan Africa-USA Track and Field meet held in Durham, NC showcased black college track athletes from St.

Augustine's College (CIAA) who participated as invited guests of USOC chairman LeRoy Walker, former chancellor and track coach of NC Central. St. Augustine track coach George Williams more than deserved the invite for his athletes. St Aug's has won the last five consecutive NCAA Div. II outdoor championshiops and four of the last five indoor championships. Williams has developed several world-class performers including current assistant track coach Antonio Pettigrew who finished second (44.88) to world champion Michael Johnson (44.32) in the USA/Africa 400 meters. Johnson's time matched the fastest in the world this year. Pettigrew was the world's best quartermiler in 1991.

WHAT A SHAME: Black Entertainment Television (BET) will carry no black college football games this year. That leaves conferences or private entities totry and pick up the slack. ### 1994 BLACK COLLEGE FOOTBALL BEGINS

1994 season to open with a BANG!

Lut Williams

BCSP Editor The first salvos of the 1994 black college football season will be heard this weekend as a host of juicy match-ups highlight the opening week.

Historic inter and intra-confer-this 102nd season of black college football begins with a bang.

(CIAA) vs. N. C. A&T (MEAC) -- This 67th meeting take over the Central program. between the two largest African-American institutions in the state was moved to a neutral site (Raleigh's Carter Finley Stadium, 49,000). That wil' hardly contain state grid fans, who haven't seen black LITTLE: Goes for college football in his first win over Aggies at Central since 1979. It's beence rivalries will insure that ing called the 1st Aggie-Eagle Classic and renews the rivalry between NC A&T coach Billy N. C. CENTRAL Hayes and Larry Little who left Bethune-Cookman last year to A&T has won the last four meetings.

GRAMBLING ALCORN STATE -- This opening game at Grambling could ultimately determine the SWAC champion. There's a perfect IV setting here; the grown legend (Grambling coach Eddie Robinson) against the growing legend (Alcorn senior QB Steve McNair). In his career, McNair has brought the Braves from be hind three times to defeat the the capitol city Tigers. If McNair sparkles here. the Heisman hype is on.

MORRIS BROWN vs. CLARK ATLANTA -- This one, appropriately billed the Labor Day Classic (one of three LDC's this week), will be held at the Georgia Dome Monday, Sept. 5. It's an new coach and a new attitude after a disappointing 1993 campaign. Coach Lou Anderson has put Va. State on the right road. Now can he follow up on last year's success?

CONFERENCE PRESEASON PICKS

Hampton favored to go out winning

SC State may win with offense

1) Hampton's Pirates have too much depth behind seven preseason all-conference players led by QB Matt Montgomery 2) Va. State must answer questions at the QB spot after the loss of offensive player of the year Greg Clark 3) WSSU offensive threats WR Oronde Gadsen (1073 yards, 21.5 per) and record-breaking FB Richard Huntley make

1) SC State's offense is expected to put

Marvin Marshall and conference rushing leader Michael Hicks returning 2) Howard losing 20 seniors and espcially QB Jay Walker

plenty points on the board with all-MEAC QB is hard. Standouts Jose White and Rupert

Grant must lead 3) Delaware State RB Phil the Rams a threat 4) Fayetteville State's defense is strong but offense line is lacking 5) NC Central is the dark horse 6) Norfolk State's much heralded QB Aaron Sparrow is reunited with his HS coach 7) Va. Union's Bobby Phillips is the most exciting back in the conference 8) Bowie State surprised last year 9) JC Smith will approach .500 10) Eliz. City has a ways to go 11) Livingstone longers

Anderson is the bright spot; a pourous defense is weakness 4) NC A&T lost their top six backs but have tough QB Maceo Bolin 5)

FAMU has Billy Joe at the helm, and two sterling DBs (Ken Rileu amdKeino Taylor) 6)

BCC has the legend, new coach Cy McLairen

but that may not help, and 7) Morgan State lost QB Orlando Persell, must find ways to win.

Grant back and QB Kerry powered offense, led by LOOR ruaher Antonio Leroy,

Albany State poised for repeat

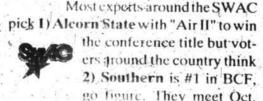

I) Albany State's combination of a highand BCF's stinglest deleasepoints toward a repeat for the Golden Rams. The Georgia floods may provide more incentive 2) Fort Valley State DBs Tyrone Poole and Jimmie Reed are preseason all-America but the offense suffered heavy losses to graduation 3) Alabama A&M brought in new coach Reginald Oliver from Central State. His forte is defense but he needs more offense 4) Savannah State gets exciting Douglas Wiggins can't wait. 5) Tuskegee, once again, offense fine, defense suspect 6) Morehouse has 18 returning starters 7) Morris Brown returns 16 and three all-conference players 8) Clark played people tough in '93 -- something to build on 9) Miles has a new coach after winless '93.

Alcorn to ride "Air II" express go figure. They meet Oct. 22 in Lorman. Meanwhile, 3) Grambling's Eddic Robinson believes his Tigers will contend. Their opener at home against Alcorn is big 4) Alabama State LB Andre' Dillard is the loop's best on defense; always dangerous 5) Jackson State will be followed by 6) Miss. Valley, 7) Texas Southern and 8) Prairie View which looks to break a 35-game losing streak -- longest in the nation.

McNair returns for degree, shot at records

By Lut Williams

BCSP Editor

Not since 1984 has a black colflege tootball player caused a stir like Alcorn State senior OB Steve "Air II"

- He has a host of NCAA1-AA records in sight for passing and total offense. Street & Smith's 1994 Pro Football edition rates him the first pick in the 1995 NFL draft. He made the cover of The Sporting News (Aug. 22 edition) and was featured in a four-page full-color spread making a case for him as a serious Heisman Trophy candidate.

He has won three consecutive SWAC Player of the Year Awards. He's a candidate for the Walter Payton Award recognizing the best player in NCAA Div. I-AA football and a finalist for the Davey O'Brien Award noting the best quarterback in the land.

NFL scouts don't disagree. They rated him a year ago as the third best quarterback in the 1994 draft behind Heath

Shuler and Trent Dilfer, the third and sixth picks. After testing the waters McNair decided to return to Alcorn to finish his degree in physical education where he has maintained a 3.0 average while making the dean's list every se-

All this adds up to hype unmatched in black college football since WR Jerry Rice and QB Willie Totten of tiny Mississippi Valley State vaulted their school, their conference (SWAC) and all of black college football from the back pages to the forefront of the American football scene.

That experience was almost unbelievable as Rice and Totten put up mind boggling numbers -- befuddling scouts and prognosticators alike who said 'they can't be that good.' Well, they were.

Totten's records for passing are still standing and Rice, who became a first round draft choice of San Francisco is now considered the greatest wide receiver to ever play the game.

"AIR II": The right combination of talent, speed, and knowledge of the passing game.

Maybe the scouts learned their lesson. They know McNair is the real thing. And so does his coach.

"What separates him from others is that he's at his best when the game's on the line," said Cardell Jones, who has seen his star engineer fourth quarter comeback wins six times a year ago.

"He'll be a dominant player early on because he has all the tools that it takes; size (6'3" 220 lbs.) he's as elusive as any running back (over 1,400 yards rushing in his career) and good overall knowledge of the passing game. He'll be an impact player right whe comes out."

According to Alcorn State Sports Information Director Derrick Hackley, Jacksonville and Carolina, the two NFL expansion teams who will pick first in the 1995 draft are already inundating him with film and stat requests.

Entering his senior season, McNair is fifth on the all-time Div. I-AA total offense list, ninth in career passing yards and has thrown 75 touchdown passes. If he has his normal season; 3,700 yards total offense, 3,100 yards passing and 25 TDs, he will threaten or surpass each of the all-time marks.

As one person said who has seen him play several times -- "check the schedule, he's worth the trip."
