

Chuck D of Public Enemy (in white) races down court to stop a fast break.

Members of the Carver team guard a player from Public Enemy.

Public Enemy Assists in Carver Fund Raiser Basketball Game

By DAVID L. DILLARD
Chronicle Staff Writer

The faculty at Carver High School teamed up with disc jockeys from a Greensboro radio station to defeat popular rap group Public Enemy in a basketball fund raiser.

Hundreds of people crowded inside the school's gymnasium last Wednesday to watch the celebrity basketball game that earned more than $1,300 for the school. Daniel Piggott, principal at Carver, said the money was raised to aid the school's non-revenue sports.

"We had a lot of fun," said Piggott, who played with the faculty. "We didn't have a specific amount set, but it's earmarked to help us buy supplies."

Piggott said the high school is not in danger of losing programs like soccer and tennis, but he said the school needed additional funds to help the other teams have nice uniforms and make a good representation of the school.

"Some of our teams need uniforms and we want them to look like they belong to Carver," Piggott said. "We want to instill pride in them, and just do what we can to help."

Chuck D, leader of the New York-based rap group Public Enemy, said influential people must become good role models and remain visible in the community.

"I think it's necessary for people to be accountable to their community," he said. "We're not on a star trip."

We wanted to come and do something for our people and help out the community in any way we can."

By the way, the faculty defeated Public Enemy 100-58.

Beta Alpha Chapter of Iota Phi Lambda Sorority Inducts Five New Members into Group

Beta Alpha Chapter of Iota Phi Lambda Sorority Inc. inducted five new members into their organization in August.

These intelligent, enthusiastic ladies, who started as Lompas, were proudly pinned Sorors, or sisters.

They are: Tracie Hunter, a graduate of Winston-Salem State University, who is district director of Boy Scouts of America;

Gloria McKissick, a graduate of Winston-Salem State, who is employed by the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County school system as a second-grade teacher at Vienna Elementary School;

Janice R. Jones, a graduate of North Carolina Central University, who serves as an operation analyst for USAir;

Rosa Marie Miller, a graduate of Winston-Salem State University, who serves in the capacity of director/coordinator of Quality Improvement at Baptist Hospital;

Patricia Ann Redman-Wynn, a graduate of Winston-Salem State University, who is employed by the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County school system as an assistant principal at Clemmons Elementary School.

(L to r:) Patricia Wynn, Gloria McKissick, Tracie Hunter, Rosa Miller and Janice Jones.

EVENTS CALENDAR * SEPTEMBER *

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22

•The Forsyth County 1994 Board of Equalization and Review will meet Sept. 22 at 3 p.m. in the Assessor's office at courthouse square in Winston-Salem. For information call, Aldon Idol at 727-2655.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24

•The Fall session for the Math and Science Academy begins Sept. 24 at 8 a.m. in the RJR Building on the Campus of Winston-Salem State University. The academy is open to students currently in grades six through nine and tuition is $225. The program runs through May 1995. For information contact Dr. Virginia Newell at 722-3480.

•"Batahola Norte" Nicaraguan Youth Choir, a multi-cultural musical experience, at Hanes Auditorium, Salem College Fine Arts Center on Sept. 24 at 8 p.m. The 38 member Nicaraguan Youth Choir will perform a variety of songs from Nicaraguan folklore and experience, using recorders, guitars, mandolins, and folkloric dancing to supplement their voices. There is a 7:30 p.m. prelude by the Moravian Band; at 8 p.m. there will be introductory numbers by the Winston-Salem State University Choir. The event is co-sponsored and supported by a coalition of 20 local organizations from the community. There is a $3 suggested donation for tickets, for information call 744-7274.

ONGOING

•Older adults of Forsyth County, will the coming month find you falling behind in your bills? Do you feel your income will not cover your expenses? Let Senior Financial Care help you with your checkbook, write monthly checks, reconcile your bank statement, and help with all your monthly budgeting needs. Our counselors will explain and answer any questions concerns your current medical insurance coverage. All these services can be yours in the comfort of your own home and are just a phone call away. For more information, call 725-1972.

UPCOMING

•The Forsyth County, 1994 Board of Equalization and Review meets Sept. 29 at 3 p.m. and on Thursday Oct. 6 at 3 p.m. in the Assessor's office at Courthouse Square in Winston-Salem.

For more information call Aldon Idol at 727-2655.

•The Reynolda House Museum of American Art will sponsor a lecture by Dr. Richard Guy Wilson from the University of Virginia entitled, "The Arts and Crafts Movement in America: Southern Manifestation" on Sept. 30 at 8 p.m. The admission cost is $3. For information call, 725-5325.

•The YMCA at 1201 Glade Street will host a free seminar to help women become more adept at managing their money and saving for the future. The seminar will be Tuesday, Oct. 4 at 7 p.m. For more information call the YMCA at 722-5138.

•Reynolda Gardens of Wake Forest University, 100 Reynolda Village, announces its Tuesday gardening and landscape series. On Oct. 4 the topic will be, "The city landscape ordinance: How to Follow the New Guidelines, Improve the Appearance of your commercial property, and minimize landscape maintenance. For information contact Camilla Wilcox, 759-5593.

•SECCA Santa is scheduled for Oct. 5 - Oct. 8 in Winston. The 17th Annual SECCA Santa, one of the Piedmont Triad's most anticipated holiday traditions, is scheduled for Oct. 5 through Oct. 8 at the Southeastern Center for Contemporary Art. Tickets and additional information are available from SECCA at 750 Marguerite Drive or call Laura Zins at 725-1904.

•The Gibsonville Merchants Association will host a Fall Festival on Oct. 8, 1994 from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. For additional information contact Dolly Gunnel at (910) 449-7299.

•Discoveries, "Artistic Creations" is now holding fall classes in basket, sweatshirt, and Christmas Angels. Sign up now at Discoveries M-F between the hours of 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. and Saturday between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. Discoveries is also hosting the "Art in the Park" crafts show at Discoveries in the Heritage Square Shopping Center on North Main in High Point. The craft show on Oct. 8 from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. Those interested in participating call 454-2551.

•The Winston-Salem State University, WSSU, Class Reunion of "53" will Oct. 15. Those interested call Cynthia R. McLaughlin at 725-2220 or Charles Haynes at (919) 847-4791.

•The Winston-Salem Branch of the NAACP on Sunday, Oct. 16 at 4:30 p.m. at their 1225 E. Fifth Street office will give the report of the nominating committee, nominations by petitions, and election of the election supervisory committee. All members whose memberships are current as of thirty days prior to the meeting may be nominated for office or the executive committee. In order to sign a nominating petition, or be elected to the election supervisory committee, a member must be current as of thirty days prior to the October meeting.

•The Parent Enrichment Program located at the Exchange Center, 500 W. Northwest Boulevard, will host a workshop starting Oct. 19 from 7 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. The workshop, "Single Parenting - Challenges & Joys" will be facilitated by Phyllis D'Agostino. Call, 748-9029.

•The Little Miss Forsyth County Pageant is now taking applications for the pageant which is to be held Oct. 22, 1994. Forsyth and Davie County Girls age 3-17 are eligible. There are five divisions and this is a preliminary to Little Miss North Carolina. All proceeds go to the Miss Forsyth County Scholarship pageant and there is a $70 fee for entry. For information, call 377-2787 or 788-0072. Norma Atkins is the director of the pageant.

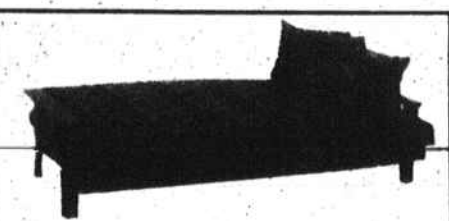

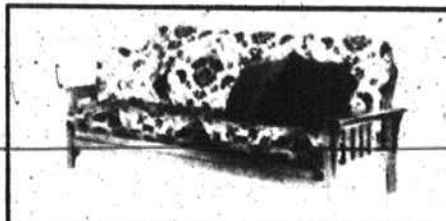

•October is "Let's Talk Month" across the country. To honor communication and education, Planned Parenthood is offering "Am I an Askable Parent?" a program designed to help parents feel more comfortable discussing sexuality with their children at any age. In celebration of "Let's Talk," this workshop will be offered free on Oct. 24 at 6:30 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. at 820 W. Fourth Street. For information call, 761-1058.

•The Parent Enrichment Program, 500 W. Northwest Boulevard, will host a class, "Parenting the School-Age Child (ages 6-11)" beginning Oct. 25 running until November 29th. All classes are from 6:30-8:30 p.m. There will also be a class entitled, "Parenting in Early Childhood (ages 1-5)" sponsored by the Parent Enrichment Program. However, this class will be taught at First Christian Preschool located at 2320 Country Club Road. For information, call, 748-9029.

•On Tuesday, November 22 the local branch of the NAACP will hold 1994 Election of Officers at the Winston-Salem Office at 1225 E. Fifth Street. Polls open from 5:30 to 8 p.m.

For additional information contact their office at (910) 748-1072.

ATTENTION COLLEGE STUDENTS & SINGLES

Futons convert easily from sofa to bed

•4 sizes & frame styles to choose from.

•Unlimited choice of futon covers in many fabrics & colors.

PRICES STARTING AT $189.00

WINSTON-SALEM INDUSTRIES FOR THE BLIND
Specializing in Mattresses

Open Mon.-Fri.
9am-4pm

7730 North Point Blvd.
(behind Classic Cadillac)

759-0551

Spend less money, Have more fun!

Purchase Dixie Classic Fair tickets between September 23 and September 29 and enjoy substantial savings on admission and rides. Adult tickets are only $3.00 in advance, and children's (ages 6-11) are $2.00. Ride booklets with 25 coupons, a $12.50 value, will be on sale for $8.00.

The general public can buy tickets at the Northwest Gate ticket booths on the Fairgrounds.

Members and employees of the following companies and organizations can get their tickets during regular hours.

American National Can	Reynolds Carolina Federal CU Tobaccoville
Bowman Gray School of Medicine	Reynolds Carolina Federal CU Whitaker Park
Carolina Medcredit Union	Royal Cake Company
Dairy Fresh	Sara Lee CU
Douglas Battery	Sara Lee Davie Distribution Center
EduServ	Sara Lee Direct
Fairchild Industries	Sara Lee Intimates
Forsyth Technical Community College	Sara Lee Knit/Farmington
Gallo's Plastics Corp.	Sara Lee Knit Products
Integon Insurance	Sara Lee Knit Products/Rural Hall
Joyce Foods	Sara Lee West Point
Lee Apparel	Strohs CU
Marque of Winston-Salem	Telephone Pioneers of America
Microfibres South	Wachovia Bank & Trust
North Carolina Baptist Hospital	Westinghouse W.A.F.F.L.E.
Piedmont Airlines CU	Winston-Salem City Employees CU
RMIC Corp.	Winston-Salem Firemen's CU
Reynolds Carolina Federal CU 5th & Patterson	Winston-Salem Police CU
Reynolds Carolina Federal CU Planters/LS	Winston-Salem Postal CU
Reynolds Carolina Federal CU Plaza	Winston-Salem Property Maintenance CU

DIXIE CLASSIC FAIR

Sale ends at 5:00, Thursday, September 29