Falcons Nearly Sweep All Divisions

The Mount Tabor Falcons swept the Winston-Salem Indians in all divisions except Pee Wee Sept. 17 as the Pop Warner Northwest Midget Football League completed its third week of play.

The Falcons improved the 3-0-0 in the Flag Division, beating the Indians 6-0 as Marcus James' scored the game's only touchdown.

FALCONS 14, INDIANS 6: Derrick McConnell scored twice, once on a 60-yard kickoff return to start the second half, to lead the Falcons past the Indians in Mitey-Mite action.

The Indians took a 6-0 lead to the dressing room at the half before McConnell's kickoff return gave the Falcons a 8-0 lead as Monterio Davis added the extra point. McConnell later scored on a 40-yard gallop to seal the victory as the Falcons improved to 3-0 with the victory.

FALCONS 26, INDIANS 0: The Falcons amassed over 400 yards of total offense and Monte Anthony scored three touchdowns as the Falcons won the Junior Pee Wee contest to improve to 2-1.

The winners sped to a 20-0 first-half lead as the offensive line of Anthony Kimbrough, Andrew Sloan, Jeremy Bailey, Josh Powell, and David Summers spearheaded the attack. Chris Griggs scored once and Jamaal Conley and Chris Key added extra points. The Falcon defense was led by Michael Wright, Chris Jones and Mario James.

INDIANS 7, FALCONS 6: The Indians claimed their only victory of the day in the closest game of the day when they slipped past the Falcons 7-6 in Pee Wee Division play.

FALCONS 28, INDIANS 0: The Falcons used scoring depth to turn back the Indians in Junior Midget action.

Four players crossed the goal line as the Falcons improved to 2-0-1 in the standings. Travis Holcomb-Faye, Tremaine Kapp, Jon Adams, and Sean Elliot scored for the winners and Adams added all the PATs. Derek Chisholm intercepted a pass for the winners and Johnny Barnes and Shelton Davis were credited with fine defensive play.

TITANS 26, FALCONS 20: The Titans jumped out to an early 12-0 lead, then weathered a Falcon rally before finally pulling away in the latter stages of the Sept. 10 game to record the victory in Junior Pee Wee action.

Lewisville wasted little time lighting up the scoreboard when Keith Dillon hit paydirt in the opening minutes of the contest for a 6-0 lead. Moments later Chris Paul scored on a short run for a 12-6 advantage as the shellshocked Falcons regrouped. Monte Anthony got the Falcons back in the game with a 60-yard touchdown scamper as the half ended with the Titans on top 12-6.

Anthony gave the Falcons their first lead with a 40-yard touchdown jaunt to open the second half and added the extra point for a 13-12 advantage. The Titans regained the lead at 20-13 before an interception return by Dillon for a touchdown pushed the margin to 26-13. The Falcons staged a last-gasp rally when quarterback Chris Key found Anthony on a 40-yard scoring pass with less than a minute to play and Antwan Steele added the PAT for the final margin.

FALCONS 21, TITANS 0: The Falcons used offensive depth and a smothering defense to shut out the Titans in Junior Midget action Sept. 10.

Three players scored for Mount Tabor, starting with Tremaine Kapp's 12-yard run. Jon Adams added the extra point. The winner's second touchdown was set up by a pass from quarterback Steve Hairston to Travis Holcomb-Faye, culminating in Holcomb-Faye's first-down scamper for the touchdown. Adams' second PAT of the contest gave the Falcons a 14-0 halftime lead.

Mount Tabor added an insurance touchdown after intermission when Hairston and Adams connected on a scoring pass and Kapp added the extra point.

The Falcons' Shelton Davis, Joe Phillips, Derek Chisholm, and Johnny Barnes were credited with fine defensive play.
