WHAT'S GOING ON IN AND AROUND BLACK COLLEGE SPORTS

CELEBRATE HERITAGE: This is the Heritage Bowl logo unveiled this week. The game is scheduled for Dec. 30 in Atlanta's Georgia Dome at 4 pm and will be carried live by ESPN. Right now it looks like a Grambling vs. S. C. State matchup.

NO MORE INTERIM: Norfolk State University interim football coach Darnell Moore has been named head coach for the Spartans. Moore took over as interim coach at the beginning of the season following the resignation of Archie Cooley.

NEW PANTHER: South Carolina State graduate and MEAC Hall of Famer Donnie Shell has been named director of community and player relations for the NFL's Carolina Panthers. In addition to handling the team's participation in community activities, Shell will serve as co-coordinator of NFL Player Programs, a league wide program that assists players and their families in continuing education, job training and financial planning. Shell graduated from S.C. State in 1976 and earned a master's degree from the school a year later.

SHELL: New job in the front office

IN MEMORY: Grambling's women basketball team has been picked to repeat as champions of the Southwestern Athletic Conference. The Lady Tigers were the first SWAC team to receive a bid to the NCAA women's tournament last year. Coach Patricia Bibbs has announced that the team will dedicate their season to guard Lisa Bruins, who was killed in an auto accident during the off-season.

OPEN THE FLOODGATES: It seems that Black Entertainment Television's exit from black college football has opened up some other opportunities. Thanks, in part, to the interest in Steve McNair, black colleges have appeared nationally on SportSouth and ESPN2 with regional coverage provided by ABC (1 game) and a syndicated three-game CIAA football network. Still to come, NBC's telecast of the Bayou Classic on November 28. As they say, check your local listings for time and station.

Playoff possibilities spice up weekend

Eric Moore
BCSP Assistant Editor

The football regular season is coming to an end but some teams are hoping that their seasons aren't completely finished this weekend.

It's normally the time of the year when the NAIA and Division II schools get ready to hang up the cleats while the NCAA Division I-AA schools play for one more week.

NCAA Division II and NAIA playoff bids will be announced next week and several lack college football teams are in the hunt for postseason play.

The major non-participant in this year's playoffs is Hampton (9-1-0, 7-0-0). The Pirates captured their third straight CIAA title two weeks ago but because of their move to Division I-AA next year, Hampton cannot participate in the Division II playoffs this year. The Pirates will finish their final season in Division II on the road against Fayetteville State (4-4-1, 4-3-0). Hampton wants to finish on a winning note and FSU is in jeopardy of experiencing its first losing season under head coach Jerome Harper. That leaves Albany State (9-1-0, 7-0-0) as the only Division II school with a legitimate shot at making the playoffs. The Golden Rams have clinched at least a tie for the SIAC championship and could win the title outright with a win over Fort Valley State (5-4-0, 5-2-0) in this weekend's Fountain City Classic game in Columbus, GA.

SULTAN COOPER: Albany State QB has thrown for 17 touchdowns and only four interceptions in 9-1 season.

In the past this game has decided the conference champion as well as who continues in the playoffs. As with most classic games, won-loss records go by the wayside.

Black college postseason prospects are a bit brighter in the NAIA where three teams are still in the hunt, Central State (7-1-0) which has remained #1 in spite of its only loss two weeks ago, returns to action against Jacksonville (Ala.) State, another team making the transition to Division I-AA.

Langston (8-2-0) continues to impress as they work toward their second straight Oklahoma Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Championship. The Lions close out their season at home against Southwest Oklahoma State this weekend.

Arkansas-Pine Bluff (6-3-0) has a more difficult task. Since only eight teams qualify for the NAIA playoffs, the Golden Lions are "on the bubble" and their fate may rest in the hands of others. Meanwhile APB closes out its season in Atlanta against the Wolverines of Morris Brown (2-7-0).

NCAA Division I-AA playoff bids are still a week away. Alcorn State (6-2-1) may have an outside chance to qualify if they show well against nationally ranked Troy State (7-2-0). Sixteen teams will qualify and with Grambling choosing to play in the Bayou Classic rather than compete in the playoffs and the Ivy League representative also electing not to participate, the Braves could get consideration.

The two winningest active coaches in black college football will meet in Miami when Grambling State (9-0-0) faces Florida A&M (5-4-0). Coach Eddie Robinson has 397 career victories followed by FAMU's Billy Joe with 171 career wins. The big question? Can coach Robinson stay on schedule for win #400 at the Heritage Bowl.

BCSP Notes

Winston-Salem State RB Richard Huntley ran for 361 yards to set a single game CIAA rushing record and that total helped the 6-1 215 lb. Jr., from Monroe, NC also set the CIAA career rushing record (4,159). Huntley becomes the second Ram of the year to break a CIAA career record. WR Orondae Gadsden broke the career touchdown receiving record of 38 held by NC Central's Robert Clark, and now has 41 career receiving touchdowns.

Norfolk State WR James Roe needs only 101 yards to break the CIAA season receiving yardage record held by Clark.

GADSDEN: 6-5, 195 with awesome leaping ability.

BCSP TOP TEN

1. GRAMBLING: (9-0-0) - Clinched SWAC tie, Heritage Bowl berth and continued roll toward Eddie's 400th. Finish with two big hurdles. NEXT: vs. FAMU at Joe Robbie (Miami)
2. HAMPTON (9-1-0) - Whipped Post and now seeks to finish off second straight unbeaten conference tally. NEXT: at Fayetteville St.
3. ALCORN STATE (6-2-1) - "Air" should be rested. This one vs. nationally ranked (I-AA) opponent may determine where he'll be in two weeks. NEXT: vs. Troy St.
4. SC STATE (8-2-0) - MEAC champs ran away from Howard, Heritage Bowl or NCAA playoffs may hinge on Nov. 19 battle at NC A&T. NEXT: Idle
5. ALBANY STATE (9-1-0) - "T-Rex" rolled. Only arch rival stands in way of NCAA playoff trip. NEXT: vs. Ft. Valley in Columbus, GA
6. CENTRAL STATE (7-1-0) - Returns to action against strong Div. II squad. Win or lose, playoffs await. NEXT: at Jacksonville St.
7. DELAWARE STATE (6-4-0) - Hornets shored up second place spot in MEAC. NEXT: at Rhode Island
8. LANGSTON (8-2-0) - Escaped with narrow win to retain conference lead. Win here should put Lions in NAIA playoffs. NEXT: vs. SW Okla. St.
9. JACKSON ST (6-3-0) - Outshot Tex. Southern and now gets to feast early. NEXT: vs. Prairie View
10. VIRGINIA ST (6-3-0) - Fish Bowl matchup should determine whether they belong in Top Ten. NEXT: vs. W-S State in Norfolk.

Others receiving votes: Winston-Salem St., Savannah St., Tuskegee and Arkansas-Pine Bluff.
