

Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference 1995 All-Conference Baseball Team

A & M, Albany Take Honors

the regular season and won six (.857). Owens led the league in winning percentage and earned run average. In 52.2 innings of work, he compiled a 2.64 ERA and fanned 33 batters which was fifth best in the SIAC. Owens was named to the All-SIAC first team as a pitcher and garnered SIAC Pitcher of the Year. This is the second time in three years that ASC has won the Pitcher of the Year award. Dexter Malone received the same honor two years ago. Both Jackson and Malone were also second team selections on the NCAA Division II All-South Region Team at their respective positions.

Other teams with two representatives on the first unit were LeMoyne-Owen, Miles and Tuskegee. Louis Simms and Clark White from LeMoyne-Owen were infield selections. Simms is the first baseman and White is the shortstop. Simms hit .412 during the regular season. He led the league in hits (61), runs scored (49), runs batted in (52) triples (5) and total bases (107). White, the 1994 SIAC Hitter of the Year, led the Magicians in hitting with a .421 average at the plate. He reached base 50% of the time and 23 of his 51 hits were for extra bases. Tuskegee was represented by Jarvis Boyd at second base and Cordell Jones in the outfield. Boyd led the Golden Tigers in doubles with eight and Jones provided the single base hits. Jones averaged 1.22 hits per game and stole 21 bases without getting caught once. Miles' Eric Jones and Frankie Raybon were selected as a catcher and outfielder. Jones led the league in throwing out base runners and Raybon was "The King of Swing". Raybon hit .404 and led the SIAC in slugging percentage (.883), home runs per game (0.42) as well as RBI's per game (1.38).

Rounding out the 1995 All-SIAC team was Savannah State's third baseman Shannon Snyder. He was 10th on the batting charts with a .391 average and third in triples with four. He led the league in sacrifice flies with five and triples per game (0.15). Snyder also averaged 0.7 walks per game which was fourth best in the SIAC.
