

St. Stephen's Holds Annual Pageant

St. Stephen's held its 5th Annual King and Queen Pageant on August 20. The pageant was a big success and was enjoyed by all who attended.

Mildred Williams and Audrey Farrow narrated the pageant as the participants marched down the aisle to the tune of "March Royal" which was written and composed by William McGill, (the organist for the affair).

The Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Samuels crowned the king and queen, after which Leon Farrow, Jr. performed a rendition of "We Crown Thee," a song that was written and composed by the late Raymond L. Couthen, Jr.

Roosevelt Hopkins, son of the late Susanna Hopkins, was crowned king. Randolph Mitchell, son of Bobby and Curlean Mitchell, was first runner up and James Farms, husband of Beverly Farms, was second runner up. Sylvia Myers Flemming, daughter of the late George E. and Esther S. Myers, was crowned queen. Sylviette Y. Simmons, the daughter of Nicey and the late Leroy Howard Simmons, was first runner up. Alice White Thomas, wife of Howard Thomas Jr., and Ernestine Price O'Neal, daughter of Wilbert Thompson, tied for third runners up.

In addition to the adult contests, young people from five other age categories participated in the pageant: Ages 1-3: Bradford Thomas Smallwood - king; Bria Symone Ballentine - queen; Paige Rochelle Moses Rice - first runner up. Ages 4 - 6; Jamar Rahsaan Porter - king; Darius T. Adams - first runner up; Calvin Fluit, Jr. - second runner up; Swannetta A. Simmons - queen; Stephanie Smith - first runner up; Myriah Danielle Lane - second runner up. Ages 7 - 9; Kedrick Kenard Easter - king; Phillip J. West - first runner up; Kevin Alexander Oakes - second runner up; Mylika DeJournette Lane - queen; Natausha LaVon Smallwood - first runner up. Ages 10 - 12; Terrell Beal - king; Kesha Latoria Hawkins - queen; Ages 13 - 20; Tamika Renee McMoore - queen; Jasmine Lene Barber - First Runner Up.

Others Running: Benita A. Woods, James Leon Farrow, III, William E. Gordon, III, and Janique Conner.

Chairing this event was Mildred Williams, with Edith Cox as Co-Chairperson, and Catherine Lowe and Betty Fowler as Coordinators.

Goler Sponsors Conference on Teen Pregnancy

Teen pregnancy is a major health problem in America today. It is associated with the high infant mortality rate, the rate of abortions and social and economic problems related to childrearing. On October 2, 3, and 4, Goler Memorial A.M.E. Zion church will conduct a conference entitled, "The Church Divine Law and Teen Pregnancy." Using Biblical principles, conference participants will focus upon preventing teen pregnancy, the physiological and psychosocial impact of teen pregnancy, and educational and moral support for teen parents. These sessions will form a Christ-centered format for addressing the problem of teen pregnancy in our community. Parents of teens, male and female teenagers are invited to attend. Conference participants will include physicians, nurses, psychologists, social workers, educators, ministers, law enforcement officers, and others. The conference will be held between 6 - 8 p.m. each evening at 630 N. Patterson Avenue. The Rev. Dr. Seth O. Lartey is Pastor. Admission is free.
