The Winston-Salem Indians remained in the American Conference hunt with a 31-0 romp over King to move to 2-1 in the league. Pfafftown is also in the running for playoff spot at 2-1. The Packers were idle last week and close the season Oct. 28 by hosting the Rams in a pivotal game.

PEE WEE. The Winston-Salem Vikings are on track for a National Conference playoff spot after running their record to a league-leading 3-0 with a 34-7 blowout of Mount Tabor Oct. 21. Lewisville continued to nip at the Vikings' heels with a 21-6 win over Walkertown that left the Titans in second place at 3-1.

In the American Conference, the idle Pfafftown Packers remain the league's only undefeated team at 2-0. The Winston-Salem Grayhounds picked up their first win of the season when they beat the Winston-Salem Rams, 19-0, in a battle of winless clubs.

JUNIOR MIDGET. The Winston-Salem Vikings and the Lewisville Titans continue to vie for first place in the National Conference. The Vikings remained the only undefeated team (3-0) in the conference when they slipped past Mount Tabor 13-12 Oct. 21. Lewisville kept pace with a 12-0 shutout of

The Winston-Salem Indians will end their football season with homecoming Oct. 28 at Kennedy Middle School. Walkertown.

In the American Conference, the Winston-Salem Grayhounds clinched a playoff spot with a crucial 14-12 win over the Winston-Salem Rams. Both teams entered the contest with 2-0 conference records. The victory gives the edge to the Grayhounds if the race comes down to head-to-head competition as the tie-breaker. The Rams and idle Pfafftown are tied for second at 2-1 and face each other Oct. 28 in the season finale.

JUNIOR BANTAM. The Winston-Salem Vikings took sole command of first place in the National Conference standings with a 13-0 win over previously undefeated Mount Tabor. The victory means the 3-0 Vikings are the only undefeated team in the conference. Mount Tabor (3-1) suffered its first conference loss, and faces a challenge for second place from Lewisville, which blanked Walkertown 25-0, and Kernersville, which beat South Fork 16-12. Lewisville and Kernersville are both 2-2 in the conference. Lewisville will host South Fork in the season finale Oct. 28, while Mount Tabor travels to Kernersville.

Pfafftown was idle Oct. 21 in the American Conference and remains atop the standings at 3-0. The Winston-Salem Grayhounds and the Winston-Salem Indians, both 2-1, kept pace with each other for second place with victories. They will square off Oct. 28 to determine which makes it the playoffs and which stays home.
