Winston-Salem Resident Receives N.C. Nurse of the Year Award

Carol Pridgen Henry was among several nurses across the state winning Nurse of the Year Awards during the North Carolina Nurses Association's Annual Convention held in Charlotte October 18 through 20. Henry received the Nurse Educator of the Year Award.

Carol Pridgen Henry

The Nurse educator is a product of the Columbus County Public School System graduating from Mt. Olive High School. She received her BSN from Winston-Salem State University and the MSN from the Medical College of Georgia.

The award winner is employed as a Nursing Instructor at North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University where she has been since 1991. In addition to teaching Medical Surgical and Fundamentals of Nursing, she serves on several committees and projects. Among her activities are faculty advisor to Dudley Senior High School of Greensboro. She also has represented the School of Nursing for the past four years as one of the faculty representatives to the Joint Clinical Resource Planning Committee which consist of schools of nursing and clinical facilities covering a five-county area. The Faculty member serves on the Academic Resources Committee and Chairs the Admissions and Progression Committee.

One of the Instructor's area of expertise is care of the elderly. As an example of her innovative strategies, her students developed a video integrating the concepts and issues of friendships, loss and loneliness related to the elderly. She has also conducted qualitative and quantitative research projects related to aging black females. Henry is a member of District 8 of the N.C. Nurses Association serving on the membership committee. She is also a member of Mu Tau Chapter of Sigma Theta Tau Nursing Honor Society chairing the nominating committee. The Nurse Educator is a member of the Board of Directors for the Greensboro Branch of Comprehensive Home Health Care, Inc.

In the Forsyth County area, the award winner serves as Epistholeus of Alpha Mu Sigma Chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc.; Recording Secretary of Rose McCloud Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Stars of Walkertown, and a member of Sethos Court Number 105 Dt. of Isis. Most recently she was selected to serve on a Focus Group of the Citizens Steering Committee of the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Planning Board. She is married to Fred C. Henry, Sr. and is the mother of three adult children. Fred and Freda are Graduate Students at N.C. A&T and Fernard attends Fayetteville State University. Henry is a member of Goler Metropolitan A.M.E. Zion Church.

The affair was attended by several members of the award winner's family including her parents Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pridgen of Whiteville; Fred Henry, Jr. and Freda Henry (children); Sandra Amos (sister); and Pridgen Jennette Amos, (niece). Other local residents attending the grand affair were Kia Boston (WSSU student); Naomi Jones (Basilus); Earlene Moore (Tammioclus of Alpha Mu Chapter Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc.); Janice Coleman and Sadie Webster (nursing faculty from WSSU).
