FAMU Extends Conference Lead

Florida A&M defeated Morgan State 47-9 Oct. 28 in Tallahassee as it racked up 531 yards of total offense, a good portion coming from Jerald Jackson and Kwame Vidal, who rushed for over 100 yards apiece.

The Rattlers took a 7-0 first-quarter lead when Robert Wilson grabbed a 39-yard scoring pass from Damian Slaughter and never trailed en route to their fourth conference victory without a loss.

Morgan State added drama to the blowout when Michael Moore and Otis Covington hooked up on a 99-yard scoring pass to set a new MEAC record. The old mark of 98 yards was held, ironically, by FAMU quarterback Antoine Ezell and Tim Daniel.

FAMU stretched its lead in the conference to a full two games with help from Delaware State, which handed defending MEAC champion South Carolina State its first conference loss, 20-7. Other games from Oct. 28 had North Carolina A&T defeating Bethune-Cookman 24-21, leaving both teams at 2-2 in the league. In non-conference games, Hampton humbled Elizabeth City State 36-13 and Howard whipped Morehouse, 27-19.

FAMU, with its unblemished 4-0 MEAC mark, now leads DelState and S.C. State, both which are 2-1. FAMU has the best overall record in the MEAC at 7-1 and has won six consecutive contests. The lone loss was to Miami-Florida. Howard raised its record to 5-3, S.C. State is 4-3, NCA&T 4-4, B-CC 3-5, DelState 3-5, and Morgan 1-7. Howard remained 1-2 in the MEAC and Morgan fell to 0-5 in last place. Hampton, 6-2 overall and winners of four straight, is not eligible for the MEAC crown this season, but can be selected to NCAA

MEAC Players of the Week

The MEAC football players of the week are sponsored by Coca-Cola USA and were selected from games played October 28.

Co-Offensive Players of the Week. Maceo Bolin of North Carolina A&T State University and Keith Brown of Bethune-Cookman College after competing against each other in NCA&T's 24-21 victory. Bolin, a 6-1, 185-pound senior quarterback from Gastonia, N.C., hit 27 of 27 passes for 205 yards and threw the winning pass with 1:24 left to play. Brown, a 5-11, 220-pound senior fullback from Avon Park, Fla., rushed for 178 yards on 21 carries.

Defensive Player of the Week. Reggie Lee of Florida A&M University after recording 10 total tackles, including six solos, two sacks, and four stops behind the line, during a 47-9 win over Morgan State. Lee is a 6-3, 280-pound senior tackle from Sarasota, Fla.

Offensive Lineman of the Week. Cecil Fisher of Bethune-Cookman after grading 95 percent on assignments and keying the blocking as the Wildcats amassed 487 yards of total offense against NCA&T. He is a 6-0, 250-pound senior guard.

post-season play.

The teams are jockeying for position not only for the MEAC title, but for post-season play as well. At-large entries to the NCAA Division I-AA championship are possibilities for all eight teams and the Heritage Bowl invitation would be a sparkling reward at season's end. The Bowl matches a premier MEAC team against one of the best from the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC), and is scheduled for December 29.

Highlights from last weekend's action.

DELAWARE STATE quarterback Dennis Jones passed for a touchdown and scored in the third period to help down S.C. State 20-7 in Orangeburg. DelState's Fabian Thorne opened the scoring on a 5-yard run in the second quarter, but S.C. State evened it by halftime.

NCA&T jumped out to a 17-0 advantage over home-standing Bethune-Cookman after one quarter, but had to come from behind to win 24-21 in Daytona Beach. B-CC drew within 17-14 at the half before Todd Walker hit James Adderly with a 11-yard pass in the third to go up 21-17. With 1:24 left to play, A&T quarterback Maceo Bolin found Reggie Shufford in the end zone from 10 yards out for the win.

HAMPTON pounced on Elizabeth City 13-0 and never looked back on its way to a 36-13 homecoming win in Hampton. Pirate quarterback Sekou Wilson hit 10 of 14 passes for 212 yards and a TD, and running back Tyrone Mayer had 98 rushing yards, including the first score on a 37-yard run. MEAC receiving leader Michael Jenkins grabbed seven passes for 175 yards.

HOWARD celebrated its homecoming with a hard-fought 27-19 win over Morehouse in Washington. The teams grappled through a scoreless first half before Morehouse took a 7-0 lead in the third period. Howard quickly retaliated for a 13-7 advantage after three quarters, sparked by a 47-yard punt return by Cedric Redden. Howard also got two other defensive scores when Billy Jenkins recovered a fumble in the end zone and Clarence Peacock bolted 47 yards with an interception.
