Questions & Answers on recovering from grief

Questions asked during bereavement counseling are answered by the editor of Afterloss, the grief recovery letter.

Q When someone you love dies, it seems that you will never be happy again. Is this so?

A There is an adjustment phase to every major change in our lives. The return to a joyful existence can certainly be attained. Some achieve this happiness sooner than others and for a variety of reasons. These include (but are not limited to): (1) a willingness to take the steps required to work through your grief (2) your own personality structure (3) your tenacity and (4) the new opportunities that may subsequently emerge.
