Goler Pillars of Tomorrow

Goler Memorial celebrates history of service since its origin in 1881

Goler Memorial A.M.E. Zion Church celebrated its 115th anniversary Oct. 13-20. The church was established in 1881 in the Forsyth County as a scholarship fund for infants, currently up to two years of age, through the purchase of mutual funds, so that upon graduation from high school and acceptance to a school of higher learning, monies will be available for their academic support. Another highlight of the evening was recognition of Dr. Frederick Douglas, former pharmacist for Model Pharmacy. Known as "Doc" to many in the community, Dr. Douglas was honored for giving 44 years of service to the community and was extended wishes for a happy retirement. The celebration ended with thanks to God for 115 years of God's grace and mercy, and a delightful repast in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Goler Memorial is at the corner of Seventh Street and Patterson Avenue. The Rev. Dr. Seth O. Lartey is pastor.

Worship services are held Sundays at 8:30 a.m., 11 a.m., and 7 p.m. Bible studies are held Wednesdays at noon and 7 p.m. The community is invited to attend.

Courthouse on Courthouse Square. Between 1881 and 1941, the church moved to various locations, until Dr. W.H. Goler donated the property that is the present site; however, the church was destroyed by fire in 1941 but was rebuilt after five years.

Activities of the week included a Gospel Choir Anniversary, Youth Night, and a memorial service for deceased members who had given loyal and faithful years of service. On Sunday, Oct. 20, Bishop George Battle was speaker for the 11 a.m. worship service. The church was honored to have as the evening guests the Rev. Donald Jenkins and his congregation from St. Paul United Methodist Church. Members age 65 and over were recognized as "Champions of Faith" for their years of service.

Six persons were officially presented as newly ordained ministers of the church. They were the Revs. Aaron Orr, Beverly Orr, Conita Hunt, Wayne Greene, Louis Hunter Jr., and Beverly McMillian. Another special event of the church was the inauguration of the Goler Infant Growth Fund. This fund is being established
