PAPER PRODUCTS

Chipboard includes cereal boxes and cracker boxes, TV dinner boxes, etc. Place dry, flattened boxes in brown paper bag or in additional bin separate from aluminum, steel, plastic, and glass.

NO boxes with a waxed finish.

Glossy and non-glossy magazines and junk mail. Junk mail includes envelopes, office paper, notebook paper, glossy ads, etc. Place in brown paper bag or in additional bin separate from aluminum, steel, plastic, and glass. NO plastic bags, plastic wrap, books, binders, or notebooks.

r residents of TODAY ddition to #1 paper, and all recycle telechipboard. and any food oard. Paper s in a paper

a brochure

your collec-

is, please call

ts previously

ember 1 or

Place phone book in brown paper bag or in additional bin separate from aluminum, steel, plastic, and glass. NO plastic bags, plastic wrap, or tape.

Clean, dry, untied newspapers and their inserts. Place newspapers in brown paper bag or in additional bin separate from aluminum, steel, plastic and glass. NO cardboard.

ALUMINUM - STEEL - PLASTIC - GLASS

Beer, soft drink and juice cans made of aluminum. Food and beverage cans made of steel. Empty the cans and rinse. Paper labels do not need to be removed. NO aluminum scraps, foil, or pie tins. NO aerosol or paint cans.

n what you nce.

ir curb

urb and

esident.

green bin vith your

#1 and #2 clear and colored plastic bottles. Only containers that have a #1 or #2 on the bottom can be recycled. Remove the cap, rinse the bottle, flatten it, and place in bin. Paper labels don't have to be removed. NO motor oil, antifreeze, styrofoam, plastic bags, plastic wrap, film, margarine tubs, deli containers, or drycleaning bags.

> All food and beverage containers made of glass. Remove lids and rinse containers. Paper labels don't need to be removed.

NO drinking glasses, dishes, mirrors, window glass, Pyrex dishes, ceramic, light bulbs, or any glass that's not a container.

